JOHNSTON H. MURRAY
GOVERNOR OF OKLAHOMA

This picture was taken of Governor Murray at a birthday party given in his honor at Southeastern this summer. The following day Governor Murray dedicated the park at Lake Texoma near here.

DR. T. T. MONTGOMERY
PRESIDENT OF SOUTHEASTERN COLLEGE

Dr. T. T. Montgomery has been an inspiration to the Student Body since he first began his duties at Southeastern State College. His fairmindedness is often reflected in the action of the Student Body. His friendly smile bears the spirit of confidence to all those who come in contact with him.

DR. A. E. SHEARER
DEAN OF COLLEGE

The office of the Dean of the College is always open to students of Southeastern. Dean Shearer is noted for his friendliness, his habit of offering help and encouragement when it is needed, and his sincere, unfailing interest in all students of the college.

Dean Shearer's office is one which Southeastern students soon locate and often visit.

JOHN T. KRATTIGER

John T. Krattiger is Counselor of Men. Mr. Krattiger has gained the admiration of all the men on the campus by his eagerness to help them. He has proved his interest in the young men of Southeastern State College many times. His B.A. was completed at Austin College and his M.A. at Southern Methodist University.

HELEN PATTERSON OWENS

Counseling the women of Southeastern is Helen Patterson Owens. Southeastern women appreciate the sincerity and earnestness with which Mrs. Owens helps them with their problems. Mrs. Owens helps to keep the standards high for the women of Southeastern State College. She is also resident Counselor of Hallie McKinney Hall. Her A.B. degree was completed at Oklahoma A&M and her M.A. was completed at Columbia University.

Miss Vivian Downs, Sponsor;
Phillip Mazor, Fay Huckabay, and Nancy Frye, seated.

Gamma Alpha cast of ALPHA PSI OMEGA, national honorary dramatic fraternity, was established at Southeastern in 1929. The fraternity motto is "Seek a life useful," and has been a challenge to fraternity members. Amber and moonlight blue are the organization's colors, selected because they are used so frequently for stage-lighting.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

The Beta Delta chapter of KAPPA DELTA PI, national honor society in education, was established at Southeastern State College on May 14, 1928.

The emblem is a key composed of a scroll, stylus, and beehive. The organization holds monthly program meetings and a formal initiation twice each year. To become a member of Kappa Delta Pi, one must have a B plus average and be at least a junior.

NORMA DEAN ALLEN
BLUE KEY FAVORITE

BLUE KEY

"Serving I Live." Leaders in men's organization and activities on the campus of Southeastern have served under this motto of BLUE KEY, national leadership fraternity, since its establishment here in 1932.

Members of Blue Key are men who are willing to accept responsibility, willing to co-operate with faculty, willing to work with their fellow students; and are men who are capable of putting across ideas and ideals and creating the right attitudes which do much to improve student life. They are truly men who are the "cream of the crop" on the campus.

Dr. A. E. Shearer, dean of the college, is sponsor of Blue Key. John Holladay is Blue Key President. Max McClendon, secretary-treasurer for the first semester, was succeeded by Morris Lewis.

Dean A. E. Shearer, John Holladay, Rev. Leslie Wilson, Dr. T. T. Montgomery, Jack Henson, Gene Rochelle, Joe Duggan, Charles Skinner, Max McClendon, Ocol Jones, Morris Lewis, and George Boyet.

First row: Betty Nickels, Patsy Crossland, Genelle Meeder, Johnnie Hooe, Evelyn Holladay, Louise Sampley, Ruby Bowen, Mary Choate.
 Second row: Jack Green, R. W. Fleak, Robert Ausley, Carl McCoy, Linnie Ruth Hall, Jack Henson, Roy Bascom, and Harold Roberts.

PI OMEGA PI, national honorary fraternity for commercial students, is open to both men and women majoring in commerce. Students are elected to membership because of their superior standing in commercial studies and distinguished leadership on the campus.

Sigma chapter of Pi Omega Pi was organized on the Southeastern campus in 1930. The chapter had been inactive since 1945, until it was reorganized in 1948. The purpose of the organization is to create a fellowship among commercial teachers and to encourage and foster high ethical standards in business and professional life.

Harold Roberts is President and Mary Choate is Vice President. Genelle Meeder is Secretary-Treasurer.

PI OMEGA PI

SIGMA TAU DELTA

The Tau Beta chapter of the national honorary English fraternity, SIGMA TAU DELTA, was established at Southeastern in 1920, and was known as "The Scribes" until 1928, when it was affiliated with the national organization.

Some of the organization's traditions are the reunion breakfast and annual picnic, participation in the Homecoming parade, and the Christmas Candle-lighting.

The requirements for membership are: the applicant must be a good student; have an aptitude for writing; and possess desirable personal characteristics.

Verna Turnage, Norma Dean Allen, Bobbie Clark, Wilma Freeman, Alice Rodgers, Everette Tigner, Francis Potter, and Silvia Jean Schilz.

DR. HENRY GARLAND BENNETT

In memory of Dr. H. G. Bennett, former President of Southeastern State College from 1919 to 1928, who died December 22, 1951, in an airplane crash near Tehran, Iran.

He was President of Oklahoma A&M and Chairman of the United States Point Four Program at the time of his death.

ART CLUB

The Southeastern ART CLUB is active throughout the year, and few important events take place on the campus without its participation.

During the 1951-52 year James Barnett was club President, and Madeline Stevens, Art professor, was sponsor. Many of the social meetings, as well as initiation ceremonies, were held in the Stevens home.

The Beaux Arts Ball is the principle event of the year which the club sponsors. Members also assist in the presentation of individual and group exhibits, and plan and design decorations for the annual Christmas candlelighting service.

First row: Lois Sutherland, Joyce Foster, Wilma Freeman, and Jo Ann Brewer.
Second row: Betty Fry, Maxine Webb, Jean Cordell.
Third row: Frank Scott, Vi Thomason, Mary Nell Robinson, and Everett Tigner.
Fourth row: Bill Freeman, James Westner, Max McClendon, and Cloyce Powell.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Southeastern BAPTIST STUDENT UNION carried on an interesting year and an active one, holding regular meetings on the campus and taking part in district and state conventions.

Officers are Maxine Webb, President; Bill Freeman, Lois Sutherland, and Jean Cordell, Vice Presidents; Vi Thomason, Secretary-Treasurer; Joyce Foster, Song Leader; Wilma Freeman, Pianist; Max McClendon, Publicity Director; Cloyce Powell, Student Secretary; and Ruth Crockett and Clarence R. Dyer, Faculty Sponsors.

First row: Ann Simpkins, Nancy Frye, Johnny Dominquez, and Mrs. Mary Frye.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS club at Southeastern has made itself known on the campus during its two years of existence through its participation in district and state meetings and by the types of programs it presents.

John Dominquez is President of the Southeastern group, and Dr. John Hunziker, history professor, is Sponsor.

First row: Judith Peny, Marjorie Nell Bohanen, Ruth Ann Fleak, Della Griffin, and Betty Sue Hotema.
Second row: Juanita Roberts, Beaver McIntyre, President; Glenn Westfall, and Ruth Fobb.

TRIBES COUNCIL

TRIBES' COUNCIL is a relatively young organization, being formed January, 1946, but it is one of the most active groups on the campus. Membership in Tribes' Council is limited to students, former students, alumni, and faculty members who are of Indian descent. The ideals of Tribes' Council are high and its purposes may be summed up: To promote fellowship and to preserve those pertinent facts concerning the well-being of the Indian in the past, present and future.

This organization does not limit all of its affairs to those of a business nature. They enter a float in the Homecoming Parade and participate in the Friendship Fire.

First row: Bertha Mae Treadaway, Sponsor; Shirley Woolbright, Maxine Webb, Margie Nell Bohanan, Norma Dean Allen, and Mary Douglass.
 Second row: A. E. Shearer, Sponsor; John Dominguez, Wayne Wylie, Bill Freeman, Sam Jones, Al Melson, and Don Parham.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The STUDENT COUNCIL at Southeastern is the organization which supervises and directs student affairs. Each spring the President, Vice President, and Secretary are chosen in an all campus election which always arouses interest on the part of the student body. When classes are organized at the start of the semester, representatives are chosen for the Student Council.

Weekly meetings of the group are held in the council room. Sponsors are Dean A. E. Shearer and Miss Bertha Mae Treadaway, physical education professor.

Al Melson is President of the Student Council, Don Parham is Vice President, and Margie Nell Bohanan, Secretary-Treasurer.

Front row: Helen Owens, Sponsor; Nancy Frye, Nita Floe Kennedy, Ina Mae Winters, Phyllis Woodruff, and John Krattiger, Sponsor.
 Second row: Don Clark, Bill McCarson, Hoyt Earnest, and Sam Jones.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL, which is sponsored by the Counselor of Women, Helen Owens, and the Counselor of Men, John Krattiger, is composed of two representatives from each of the social sororities and fraternities on the campus. These organizations are Phi Sigma Epsilon and Sigma Tau Gamma, social fraternities, and Alpha Sigma Tau and Pi Kappa Sigma, social sororities.

The purpose of the Interfraternity Council is to make rules and regulations regarding the activities of the social fraternities on the Southeastern campus. The council meets the first Tuesday of every month.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, better known to everyone as the WAA, is another organization which has enjoyed widespread recognition and success, even though it was only established at Southeastern in 1940. Affiliation with the national organization came in the same year.

Flying the colors purple and gold, the WAA finds that working together is lots of fun. The spring all-state trip at Camp Jack Little and the annual manless dance have already become traditional as well as the all-girl parties which have found a place in WAA.

DISC JOCKEY

DISC JOCKEY BARN DANCE

The social dance group known as the DISC JOCKEY CLUB with the motto "All for fun and fun for all," has lived up to expectations after its fifth year as a club.

Music, rhythm, and leadership—these ideals are pursued by the goodnatureed Disc Jockeys, and they have made their club a campus favorite.

Lloyd Gibbs
President

Front row: Charles Andrews, Phillip Mazor, Clovus Burden, Dena Dunagan, Wilma Nichols, Frances McCullough, Lynn Stevens, Bobby Sue Hottel, Katherine Brock, La Verne Clary, and J. W. Watson.

Second row: Jim Shaver, Jim Glenn, John Kilkaitis, Gwynn Coody, Margaret Imotochy, Marlene West, Lucy Hollowell, Harold Roberts, Johnnie Hooe, Bill Embree, and Vivian Downs, Sponsor.

COLLEGE PLAYERS

COLLEGE PLAYERS, composed of college speech students, get experience in all phases of dramatic work and take part in many campus activities. Their entry in the Homecoming Parade this year was one of the most attractive and carried off one of the prizes.

In addition to drama and stagecraft, College Players also get experience in radio programs. Charles Andrews is the 1951-52 president.

First row: Goldie Ree Johnson, Betty Fry, Dorothy Hamilton, and Frede Franks.

Second row: T. A. Houston, Sponsor; Merle Himes, Ann Hawkins, Mary Ellen Wells, Ruthie West, Don Clark, Grace Herd.

Third row: Ann Simpkins, John Jay, Trammel McClure, Cecil Riding-In, and Max McClendon.

BOULE

This year BOULE enjoyed a continuance of the lasting popularity and success the club has known throughout its 27 years of campus life. With its name pronounced "booley" the order is rich in the lore of the ancient Greeks, with much of its historical background attributed to the founder and sponsor, T. A. Houston.

Just what happens at Boule meetings and during initiation no one knows, and members only smile in reply to outsider's questions, for Boule is the most secret of all the secret campus clubs.

First row: Don Haddock, Ben Bural, John Jay, Joe Scoggins, Bill Haddock, and E. B. Robbins, Sponsor.
Second row: Joe Kemp, Wayne Money, Bill Smith and Max Kanard.

AGRICULTURE CLUB

The "AG CLUB" is one of the newest organizations on the campus, and one of the most democratic. Its membership is open to any student interested in promoting better agriculture. It stands for the same thing as its motto: "Enjoy better living through better agriculture."

The activities this year included field trips and coon hunts. They also participate in the homecoming parade.

Front row: Winston Johnston, Marceau Roland, R. W. Harkey, Sponsor: John Gardner, Paul Sanders, Sponsor: Everett Krute.

Second row: Earnest Pitchlynn, George Thompson, John Krattiger, Sponsor: Jerry Henderson, and James Burris.

MAGIC PENTAGON

The MAGIC PENTAGON, which is a mathematics club, was established on Southeastern campus January 10, 1928, with Professor Allen Berger as sponsor.

The club has thirteen members this year and the programs have included several talks about different phases of math.

Organized in October, 1921, the SOCIETAS LATINA is not only one of the oldest clubs, but also one of the most active on the campus. Its purposes are to foster a greater interest in humanities and to promote friendliness among Latin students in Southeastern State College.

Interesting programs on classical subjects are given at the meetings. The club also sponsors parties during the year, holds an annual banquet in the spring, enters a float in the Homecoming parade, and sponsors a booth at the annual Beaux Arts Ball.

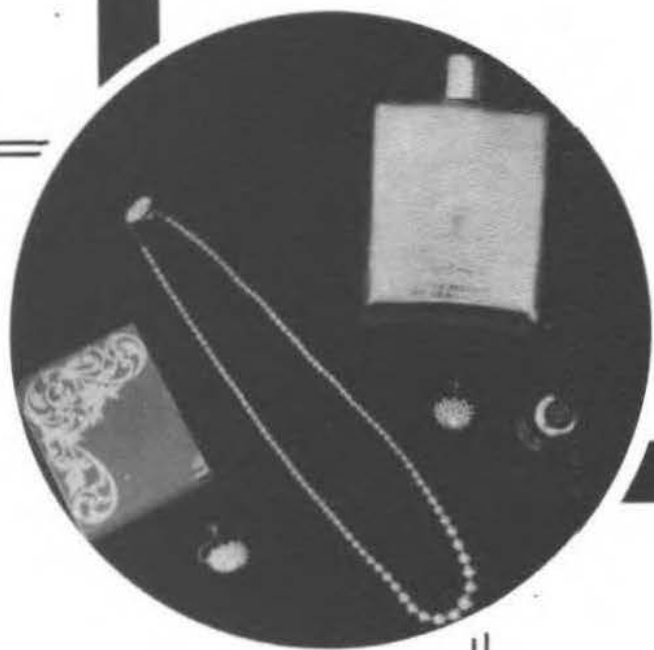

LATIN CLUB

Front row: John Dominquez, Don Yeager, Gloria McCann, Virginia Adcock, Dolores Jones, and Isabell Work, Sponsor.
Second row: John Jay, Everett Tigner, G. W. Snodgrass, and E. J. Alexander.

DAVE STEVENS
Coach

BLOOMER SULLIVAN
Coach

Dave Stevens, head football coach, is a graduate and former athlete of Southeastern. He came to Southeastern in 1941 and has a very impressive record behind him.

Coach Stevens' Savages have won three conference plays since 1946 and have finished second three times.

In the past six years he has won 38 games, lost 19, and tied 4. Coach Stevens also serves as track coach.

Although the Savages have not won a track crown in the past six years, they finished second in 1947, 1948, and 1949.

They were nosed out by OBU in 1947 by two points and again in 1948 by $\frac{1}{3}$ point.

The 1951 Savages finished the season with six losses and only three victories but those who watched them play know that the team was much better than their record indicated.

The Savage schedule was perhaps the roughest one ever faced by a Southeastern team. Coach Dave Stevens' crew lost to such out-of-state powers as Louisiana Tech, Northeast Louisiana, Austin College, and Carswell Air Force of Fort Worth.

Carswell's team was made up entirely of major college football players including two All-Americans, Bud McFadin and Bud Sherrod, and six other players who had gained recognition on the All-Southwest conference team.

In conference play the Savages finished in a tie with Southwestern for second place. Against conference teams they scored 94 points and only 48 were scored against them.

The highlight of the season for the Stevensmen was their 30-7 victory over East Central. The Southwestern Homecoming game, won by the Savages 33-6, rated a close second.

Although the team won only three of nine games they proved themselves worthy with their fight, hustle, and sportsmanship.

Perhaps the most enjoyable game of the season for coach Dave Stevens' Savages was their 30-7 victory over the arch-rival East Central Tigers. Pictured below is Don Townsend (35) skirting around end for a first down with Dale Ernst (48) providing the blocking. Other Savages pictured are David Emerson (9), Harry Dodd (3), Hoyt Earnest (29), and Josh Downing (38).

BASKETBALL

BLOOMER SULLIVAN
Director of Athletics
Head Basketball Coach

Coach Sullivan has proved himself one of the best small college coaches in the nation. His record for the past twenty years at Southeastern is an amazing one.

He is the only coach ever to win the Oklahoma Collegiate conference in basketball for five consecutive years. Coach Sullivan's ball-control and defensive type basketball has spread throughout the state and neighboring states.

Coach Sullivan is also line coach for the football team and coaches the baseball team.

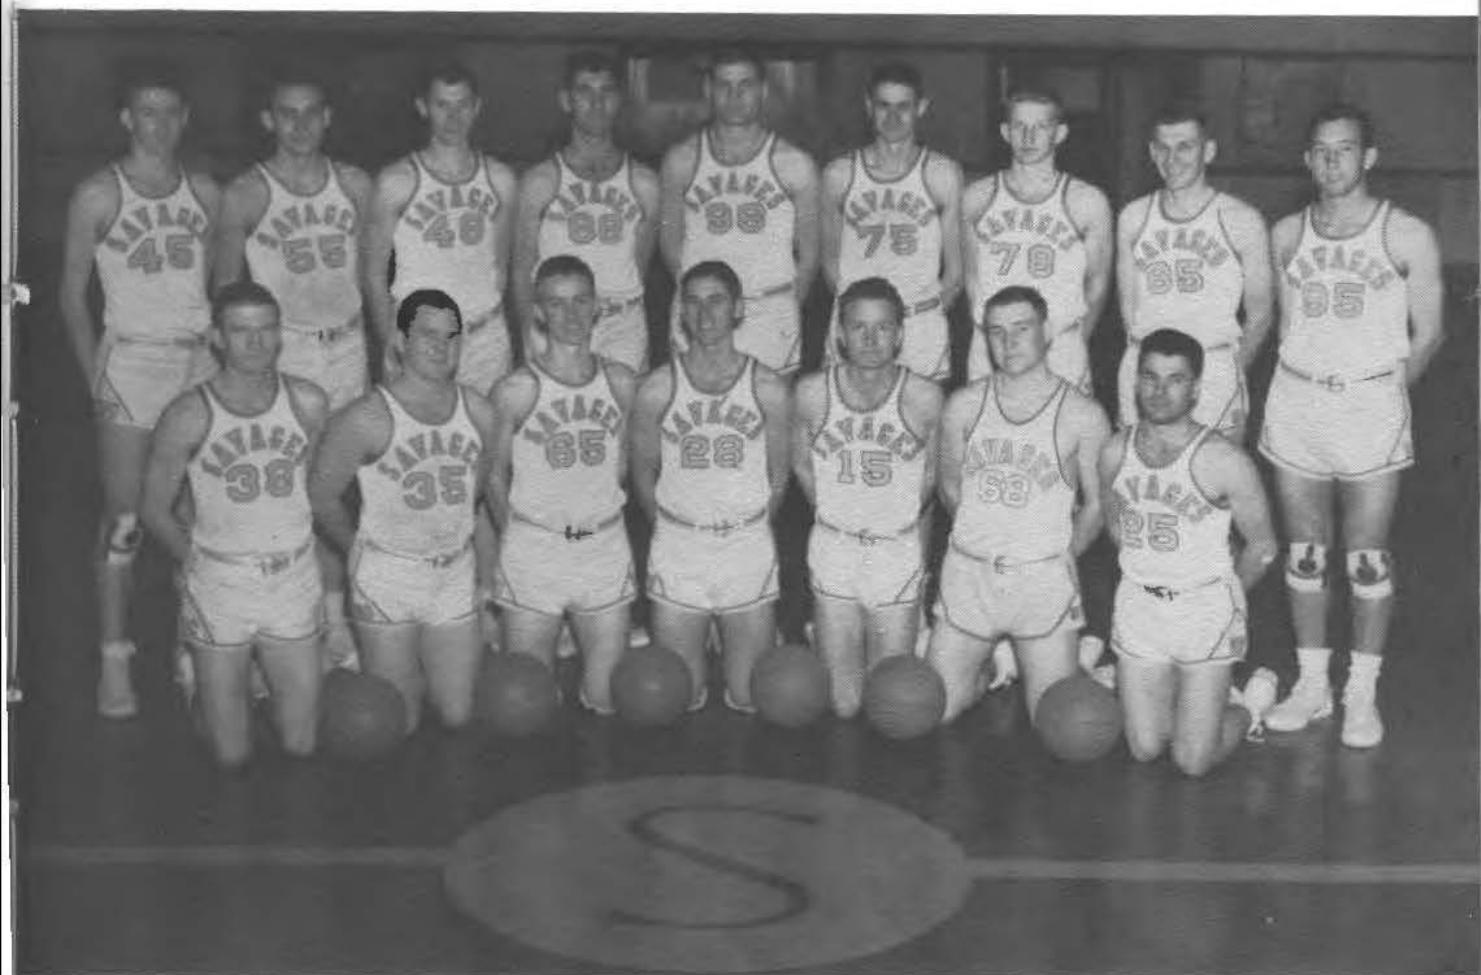

As the Year Book went to press, Southeastern's highly efficient Savages were in first place in the Oklahoma Collegiate Conference, with seven victories and no defeats.

The 1951-52 cagers of Coach Sullivan had defeated every member of the OCC and seemed headed for another conference title. Their season's record showed fifteen wins and only five defeats. They won the consolation championship in the Sunshine Tournament at Portales, New Mexico. Immediately afterward, they won nine consecutive games.

This Savage team is ranked as one of the school's best. Its roster lists eight graduating seniors and a host of underclassmen who more than live up to the high standards demanded by Sullivan-coached teams.

It would be almost impossible to name the team's most valuable player, as they all shared in the glory at one time or another. The most enjoyable victory of the season was the Savages' 56-40 conquest of arch-rival East Central of Ada. It was the most lopsided game between these two teams in the past eight years.

Southeastern was far ahead of the conference in defense with a 45.4 average.

CLARENCE DYER
Tennis Coach

Clarence Dyer, Savage tennis coach, has enjoyed great success with his teams here at Southeastern. His netmen won the Oklahoma Collegiate conference in 1947, finished second in 1948, and won the crown again in 1949, 1950, and 1951.

Coach Dyer, who is also Associate Professor of Industrial Arts, has brought much honor and distinction to Southeastern State College.

Perhaps the least recognized, yet most successful, sport on Southeastern's campus is tennis.

At the present time, the Savage netmen have gone through thirty-three consecutive duel matches without a single defeat. In 1951, they tied Texas A&M and SMU and defeated Houston University, Missouri Valley champ, TCU and Oklahoma University's big seven champions.

Since 1947, they have won the Oklahoma Collegiate conference four times and finished second once. In last year's conference tournament the Savages were completely dominant. Harlowe Binning, Savage number one man, defeated another Savage, Rick Green, to win the OCC singles championship. Green and Binning teamed together and defeated teammates Bruce Blake and Kenneth Lewis for the doubles championship.

Front row: Bobby England, Roger Lindley, Larry Hendricks, Leo Long, Dale Ireland, Earl Glenn, Marvin McDaniels, Phillip McCarley, Paul Corder, and Jim Bernette. Mascot: Bloomer Dan Sullivan.

1951 marked the first time in a great many years that Southeastern has fielded a baseball team. Coach Bloomer Sullivan's crew won four of nine games and played inspired baseball throughout the season.

In conference competition they defeated Central State and East Central while losing to Phillips 2-1, Northwestern, O. B. U. and champion Southwestern.

With only three seniors on the 1951 team, Savage hopes for a conference championship in 1952 are high.

Skeeter drowning his sorrows.

Anybody need a slightly-used emcee?

Just a minute and we'll do number ten!

Next week it will be different, gals!

Phi Sigs on their better behavior—even Big Bill.

Are there anymore at home like you?

Brand new pledge ribbons.

We picked you for our queen.

Dogpatch's finest!

"Little D" Queen.

Didn't know "Apollo" was interested in what the well-dressed miss will wear

Trick photographers.

Will we ever make it by parade time?

We have all kinds on our campus.

And at a church party, too!

What snap courses are listed this semester?

Cheering themselves on to victory!

They got so attached to him they could hardly watch his cruel fate!

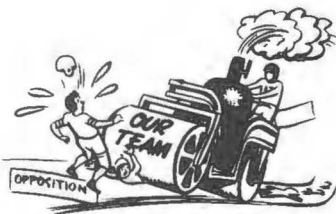

The prettier side of the homecoming game.

FOLLIES

In the spring of 1949 Pi Kappa Sigma social sorority put on the first production of the Follies on the Southeastern campus. Each year since the Follies have been an eagerly-awaited event. With the assistance of Phi Sigma Epsilon social fraternity, the Pi Kaps have managed to present a near-professional production of songs, dances, and skits each spring.

INTERCOLLEGIATE RODEO CLUB

The INTERCOLLEGIATE RODEO CLUB was organized on the Southeastern Campus February 14, 1950. The purpose of the club is to promote participation in the intercollegiate rodeo, and build interest in rodeo functions for students interested in such activities.

The club will participate in Collegiate Rodeos against other rodeo teams throughout the Southwest. Last year's rodeo, sponsored by the club, was very successful. Plans for a bigger and better one are underway this year.

HELL HOUNDS

The 1951-52 school year at Southeastern saw the reorganization of the HELL HOUNDS, pep club. Revival of the group gave a decided lift to school spirit at the college. The Hell Hounds, who promptly got colorful new jackets and chose a queen, set as their goals promotion of college spirit, support of all athletic events, and all-round service to Southeastern.

Charter members of the newly-organized group are Morris Lewis, President; Bill Embree, Vice President; Lloyd Gibbs Secretary-Treasurer; Bill Glaze, Pledge Master; Philip McCarley, Charles Skinner, A. J. McCarty, Al Melson, Bob Johnson, and Kenneth Dickinson.

POOR BOYS

Soon after the start of the 1951-52 school year, a group of freshmen decided that they would start a fraternity of their own—and one that would fit their pocketbooks. They wanted the congenial companionship of fraternity life and an opportunity to band together for service to the college; but they turned thumbs down on expensive entertainment and excessive dues. The POOR BOYS ordered sweaters and other emblems, chose a queen to take part in Homecoming, and had a busy year in general. Although they were contacted by a number of national groups, asking them to affiliate, when the yearbook went to press the Poor Boys were still rugged individualists.
