DR. A. E. SHEARER
President of College

After serving Southeastern State College for many years as Dean, Dr. Allen E. Shearer last summer was chosen President. Congratulations from all parts of the country came to the college and to Dr. Shearer as the selection of the new president was made known. Continuation of the college's progress toward higher standards of service has marked President Shearer's first year in office and points to a distinguished administration for the new executive.

DR. GUY A. CURRY

Dean of College

LEA DAVIS
Secretary

Although he has been on the campus less than a year, Dr. Guy A. Curry has already made himself a part of Southeastern. Faculty and students alike always get a friendly welcome in his office and sympathetic attention to any problems which need solving.

John T. Krattiger

Dean of Students

John T. Krattiger's genuine interest in Southeastern students and their activities has earned both their affection and respect.

Effie Montgomery

Dean of Women

In her new position as Dean of Women, Miss Effie Montgomery continues to prove that she is always at the service of Southeastern students, the men as well as the girls.

Dear Jim -

I have really enjoyed picking the queen of your college annual I just wish I could pick all of the girls because it was no easy task to pick one. Also in some cases I know that pictures of certain girls do not flatter them in any way. I hope that everyone will be pleased with my selection.
They all are more than deserving I am sure.

Thanks again for the honor and hope that I can help you in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

S.S.C.

"Beauty and Brains" are combined in Doris Andrews, English Major from Denison, who has received more honors in her three years at Southeastern than most students receive in four. Doris was one of the ten pretty girls her Senior year, she was 1952-53 President of Kappa Delta Pi, held offices in her class and other organizations, was a member of both The Southeastern and The Savage staff, and was the 1952 Eloise K. Robbins award winner.

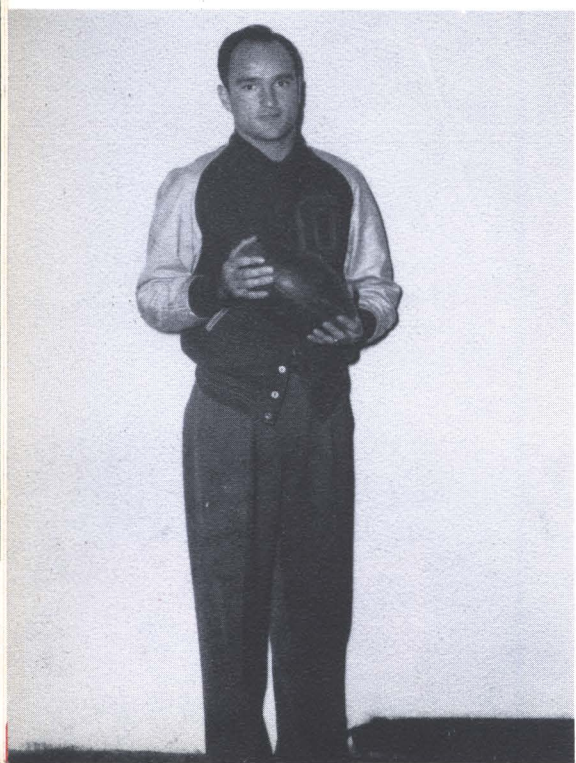

DORIS ANDREWS

Twice in two years Joe Duggan won first prize at the Beaux Arts Ball with his murals. Art was his principal interest and his most outstanding talent, but his interests extended into many other fields.

JOE DUGGAN

BILL HUGHES

During his Senior year he was President of his fraternity and other organizations, along with serving as Editor of The Savage.

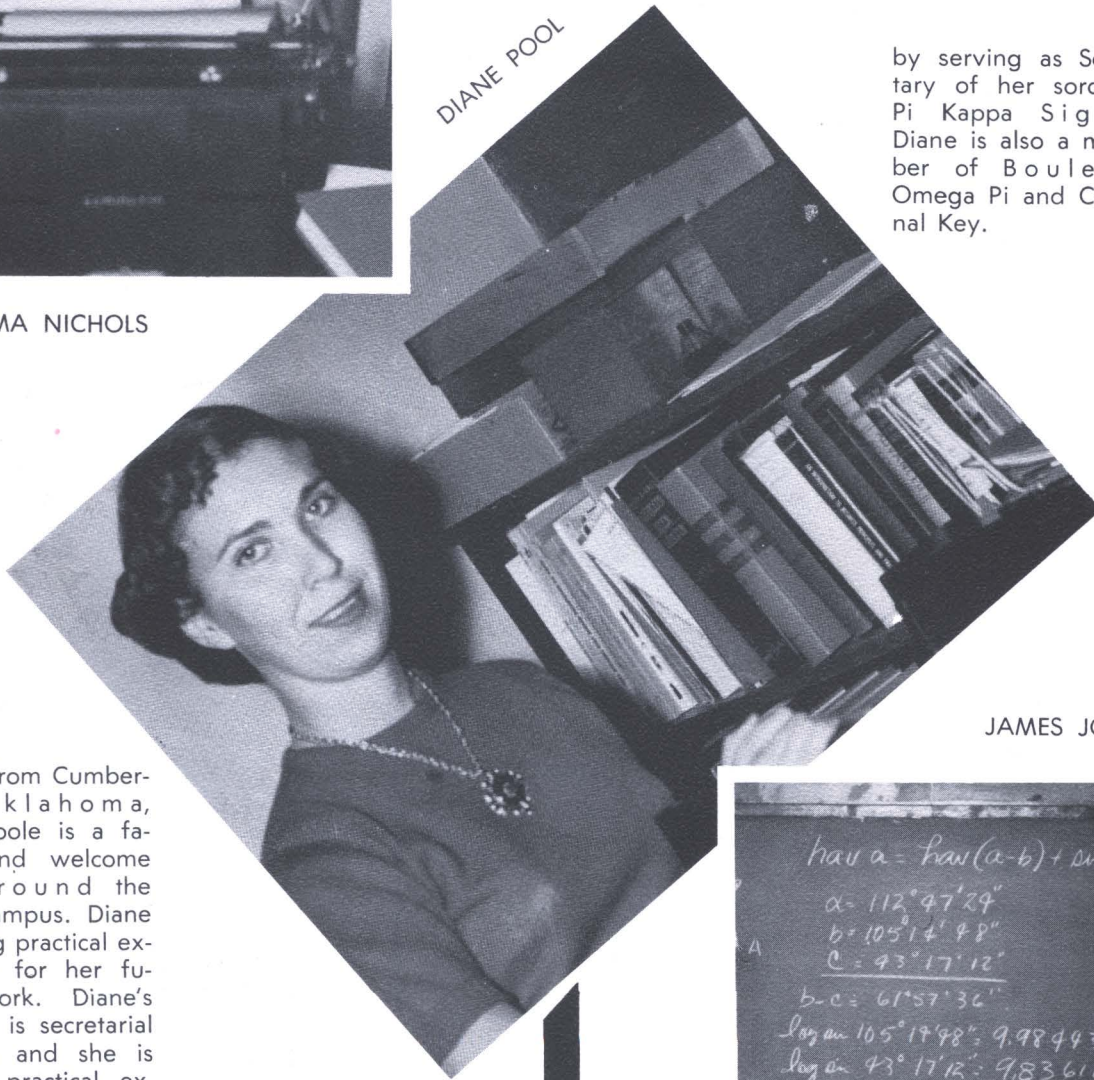

Bill Hughes saved the day for the Savages many a football game, but his position on the campus was not due solely to his athletic prowess. A good student and an enthusiastic supporter of all worthwhile campus activities, he held the respect of students and faculty members alike.

WILMA NICHOLS

"Good things come in small packages" is daily displayed by Wilma Nichols. Though small of stature, Wilma manages to combine large quantities of work and study, as she scurries from the Dean of Women's office, where she has worked since first coming to Southeastern, to class. Wilma also finds time to serve as Secretary of Kappa Delta Pi and College Players.

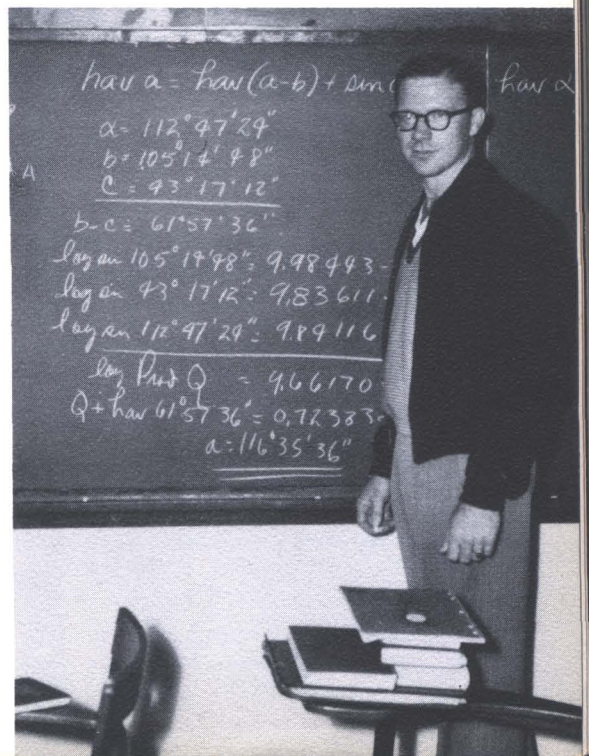

DIANE POOL

by serving as Secretary of her sorority, Pi Kappa Sigma. Diane is also a member of Boule, Pi Omega Pi and Cardinal Key.

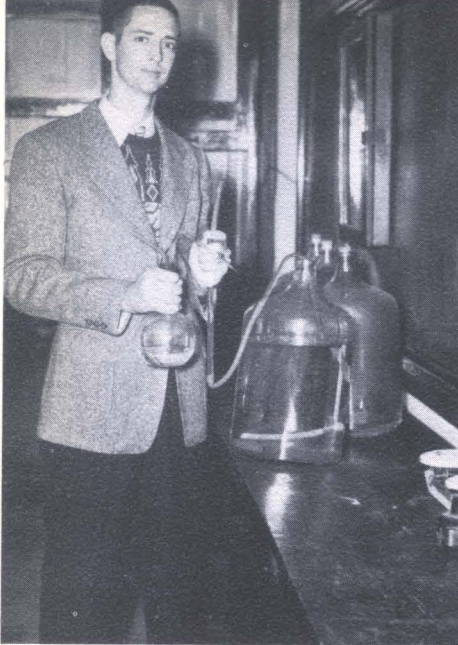

Hailing from Cumberland, Oklahoma, Diane Poole is a familiar and welcome sight around the S.S.C. campus. Diane is getting practical experience for her future work. Diane's major is secretarial training, and she is gaining practical experience in this field

JAMES JOHNSON

Math and Chemistry may be the downfall of some students, but they were the best angles of college for red-headed James Johnson, President of Magic Pentagon. A member of Sigma Tau Gamma and an officer in Blue Key, Johnson was one of the best students on the campus. Nashoba, in Push county, is his home town.

$\text{hav } a = \text{hav}(a-b) + \text{hav } c$ $\text{hav } \alpha$
 $a = 112^{\circ} 47' 29''$
 $b = 105^{\circ} 14' 48''$
 $c = 93^{\circ} 17' 12''$
 $b-c = 61^{\circ} 57' 36''$
 $\log \sin 105^{\circ} 14' 48'' = 9.98493$
 $\log \sin 93^{\circ} 17' 12'' = 9.83611$
 $\log \sin 112^{\circ} 47' 29'' = 9.89116$
 $\log \text{hav } Q = 9.66170$
 $Q + \text{hav } 61^{\circ} 57' 36'' = 0.72383$
 $a = 116^{\circ} 35' 36''$

DONALD COLLIER

A family and a job down town kept Donald Collier from participating in extra-curricular activities at Southeastern, but he made up for it in his scholastic record. Chemistry and Mathematics were his principal interests on the campus; and his professors in those departments predict a gratifying career for this Hawood student.

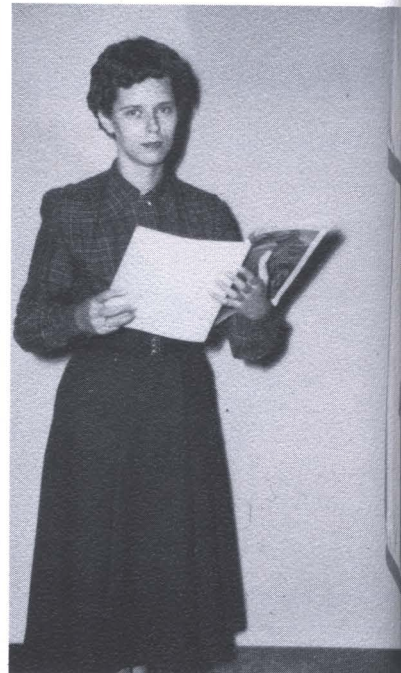

"Music, music, music!"—that's Verna Turnage of Gainesville, Texas, who was chosen for "Who's Who" in her Junior year. Although Verna sang on many programs, she will be remembered most vividly for her portrayal of roles in two operas, "Down in the Valley," and "Amahl and the Night Visitors." She was also a member of Sigma Tau Delta and worked in the President's office.

VERNA TURNAGE

Lois Sutherland of Atoka made many friends on the campus during her stay at S.S.C. A music major and member of Pi Kappa Sigma, Lois found time for many B.S.U. activities and was one of the best-liked girls at Hallie McKinney Hall.

LOIS SUTHERLAND

Bobbie Boothe, Mead, is one of the very favorite Southeastern campus coeds.

Popular Bobbie was chosen Hellhound Sweetheart her Sophomore year and as a member of Alpha Sigma Tau, she is very active in sorority work.

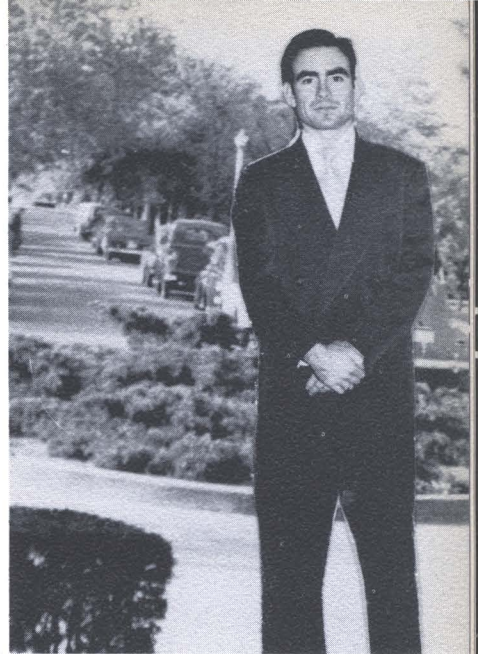

A business major, Bobbie takes dictaphone in hand and looks ahead to the future and the executive's position which she will someday hold.

BOBBIE BOOTHE

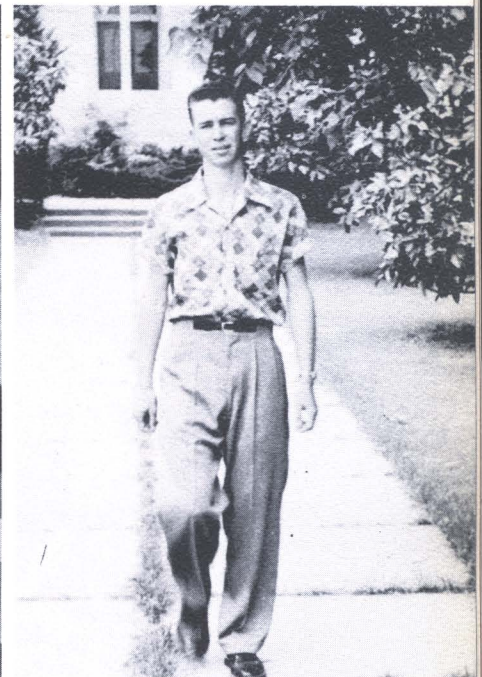

JOHN DOMINGUEZ

John Dominguez of Mercedes, Texas, was not on the campus long before he began making his name well known. His activities brought honors to him and to the college. He served as President of The International Relations Club two years and also was President of the Latin Club. He received awards in debate and in Latin, and was a member of Sigma Tau Delta, English fraternity and Phi Alpha Theta, history fraternity which sent him to the Puerto Rico national convention.

MARY HELEN CARLAT

Mary Helen Carlat from Denison, Texas is known by the nickname "Windy" on the Southeastern campus. Of course this is because she is such an enthusiastic conversationalist, but not only can "Windy" talk about many things, she can do many things. She has both a practical and an artistic side, as she displays in her major, home economics, and her minor, art. Also socially minded, Mary Helen serves as President of her sorority, Alpha Sigma Tau, and Cardinal Key.

FRANK SPENCER

Frank Robert Spencer of Cameron may not be so well known on the Southeastern campus—but everyone knows "Buddy"! A basketball star and President of the Student Council, Spencer made a host of friends on the campus and won the affection and respect of students and faculty members alike.

That old saying about still water running deep seemed to apply to Marilyn Watkins, Denison resident of Hallie McKinney Hall. But her friends insisted that she was not really quiet when you knew her well. Making grades was the least of Marilyn's worries—as a check of her scholastic record will show. A member of Pi Kappa Sigma, Marilyn majored in Business Education and minored in Spanish.

MARILYN WATKINS

PHIL MAZOR

Phil Mazor of Oakland, California, has made an important contribution to dramatics at Southeastern. His characterization of the Father in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" will long be remembered. Phil has been President of Alpha Psi Omega and College Players, drama groups, is a member of Sigma Tau Gamma social fraternity and Sigma Tau Delta, and was Advertising Manager of The Southeastern.

Another beauty 'n' brains combination was Ruth Ann Fleak. In addition to being a repeat in the beauty section of the year-book, Ruth Ann was named Blue Key favorite her Senior year.

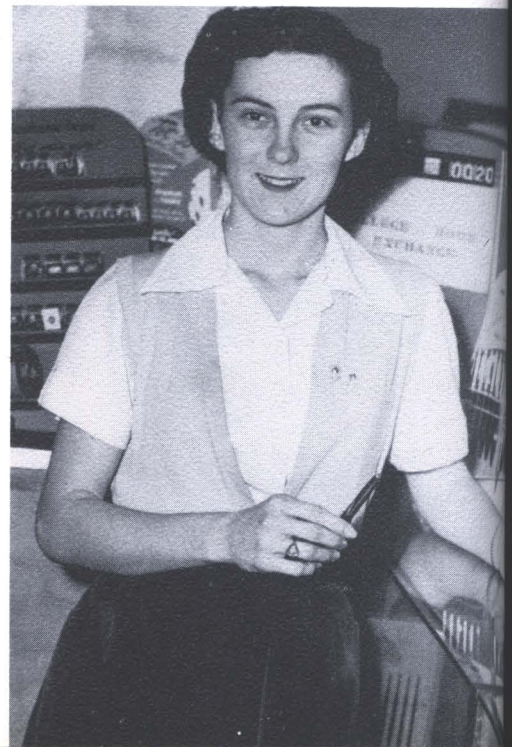

RUTH ANN FLEAK

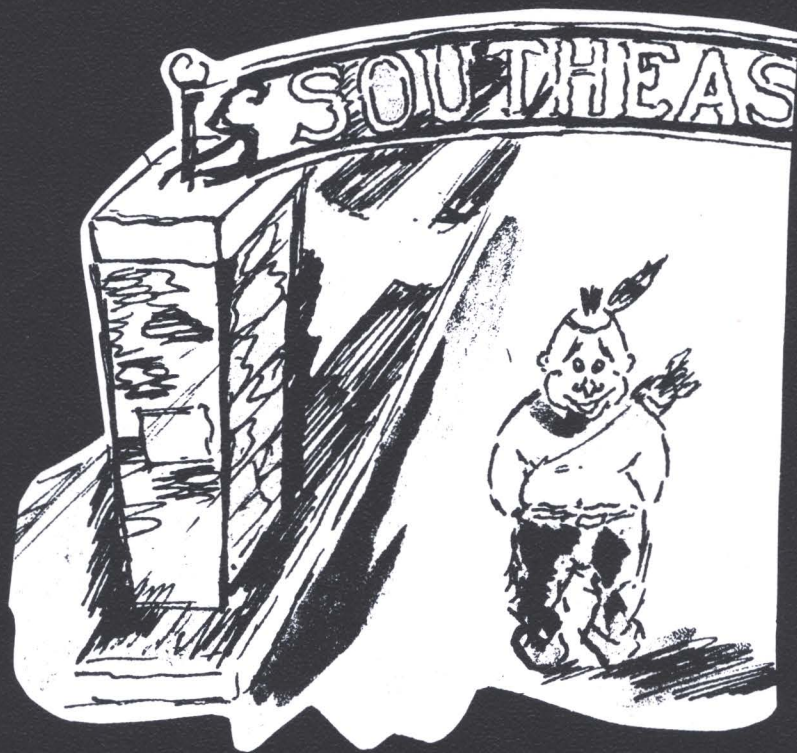

As President of Boule, an active member of Pi Kappa Sigma, and a member of other campus groups, Ruth Ann was one of the most popular girls at S.S.C.

ANNA LOU SPRINGER

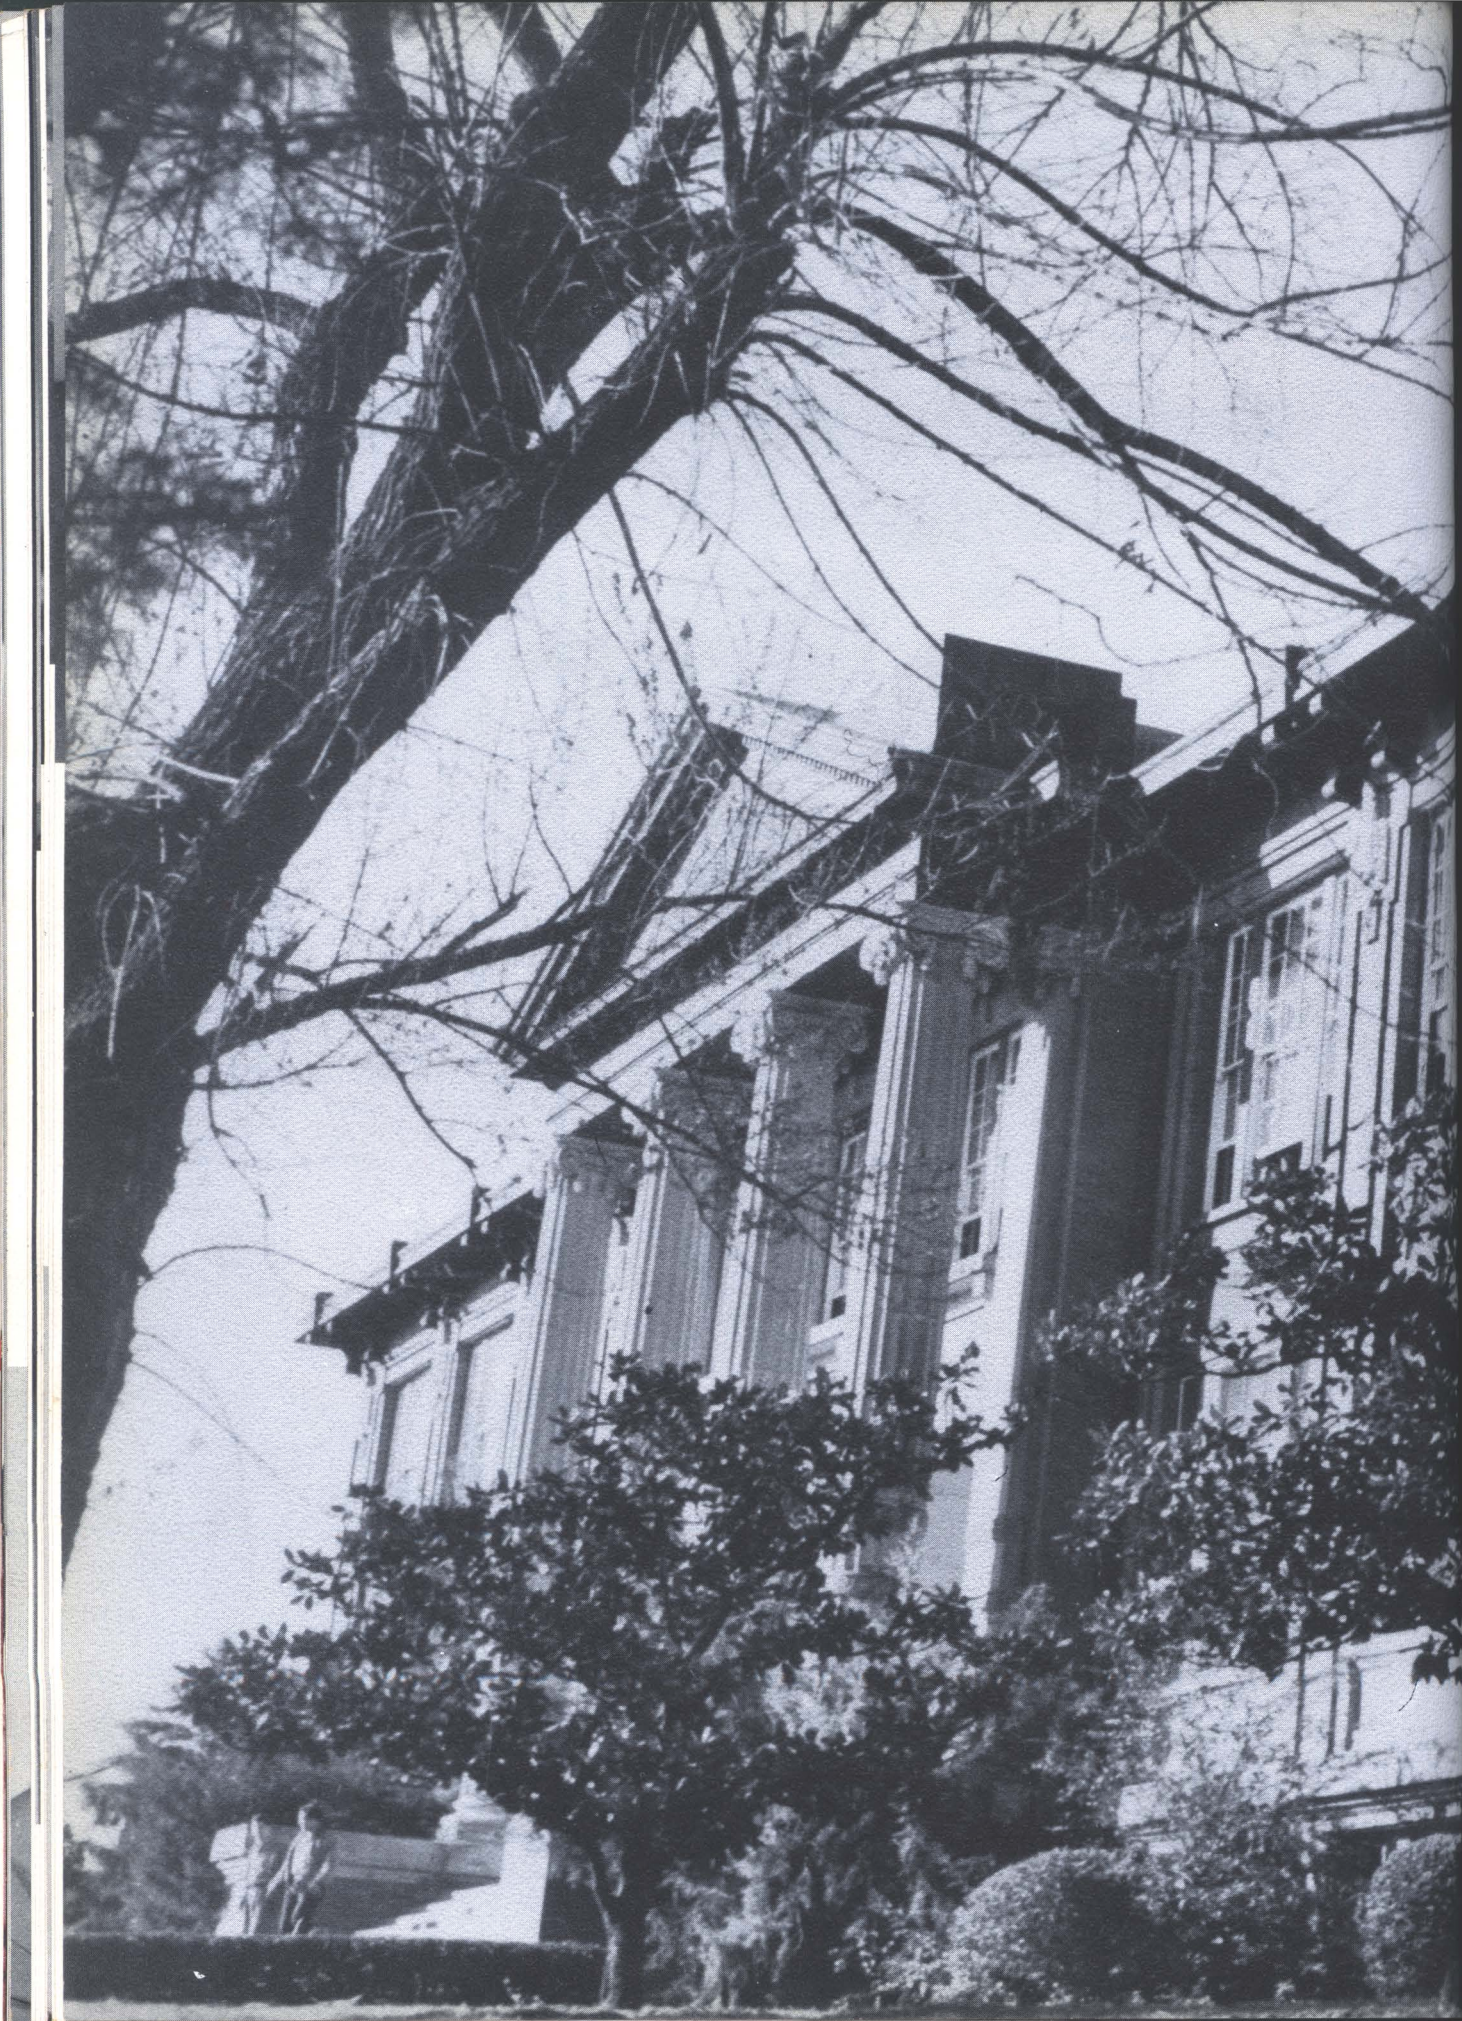

Anna Lou Springer, Durant, proved herself an able leader as President of Pi Kappa Sigma social sorority. Business education and home economics gave her an interesting choice of careers to follow after college. Social life and college "extras" did not keep her from holding down a job down town.

Kappa Delta Pi

The Beta chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society in education, was established at Southeastern State College on May 14, 1928. The emblem of the organization is a key, composed of a scroll, stylus, and beehive. The organization holds monthly meetings, and a formal initiation twice each year. To become a member of Kappa Delta Pi, one must have a B-plus average and be at least a Junior.

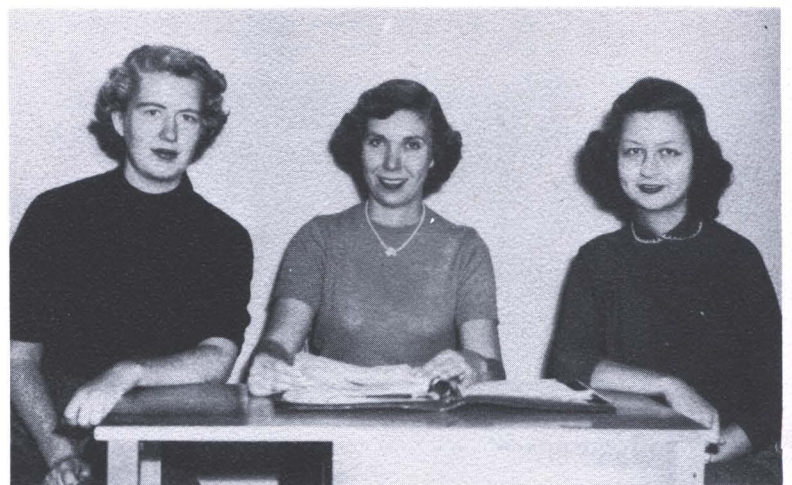

The Southeastern chapter sent delegates to the national convention last spring at the University of Michigan and to the regional convention this fall at Stillwater.

Eta Chapter

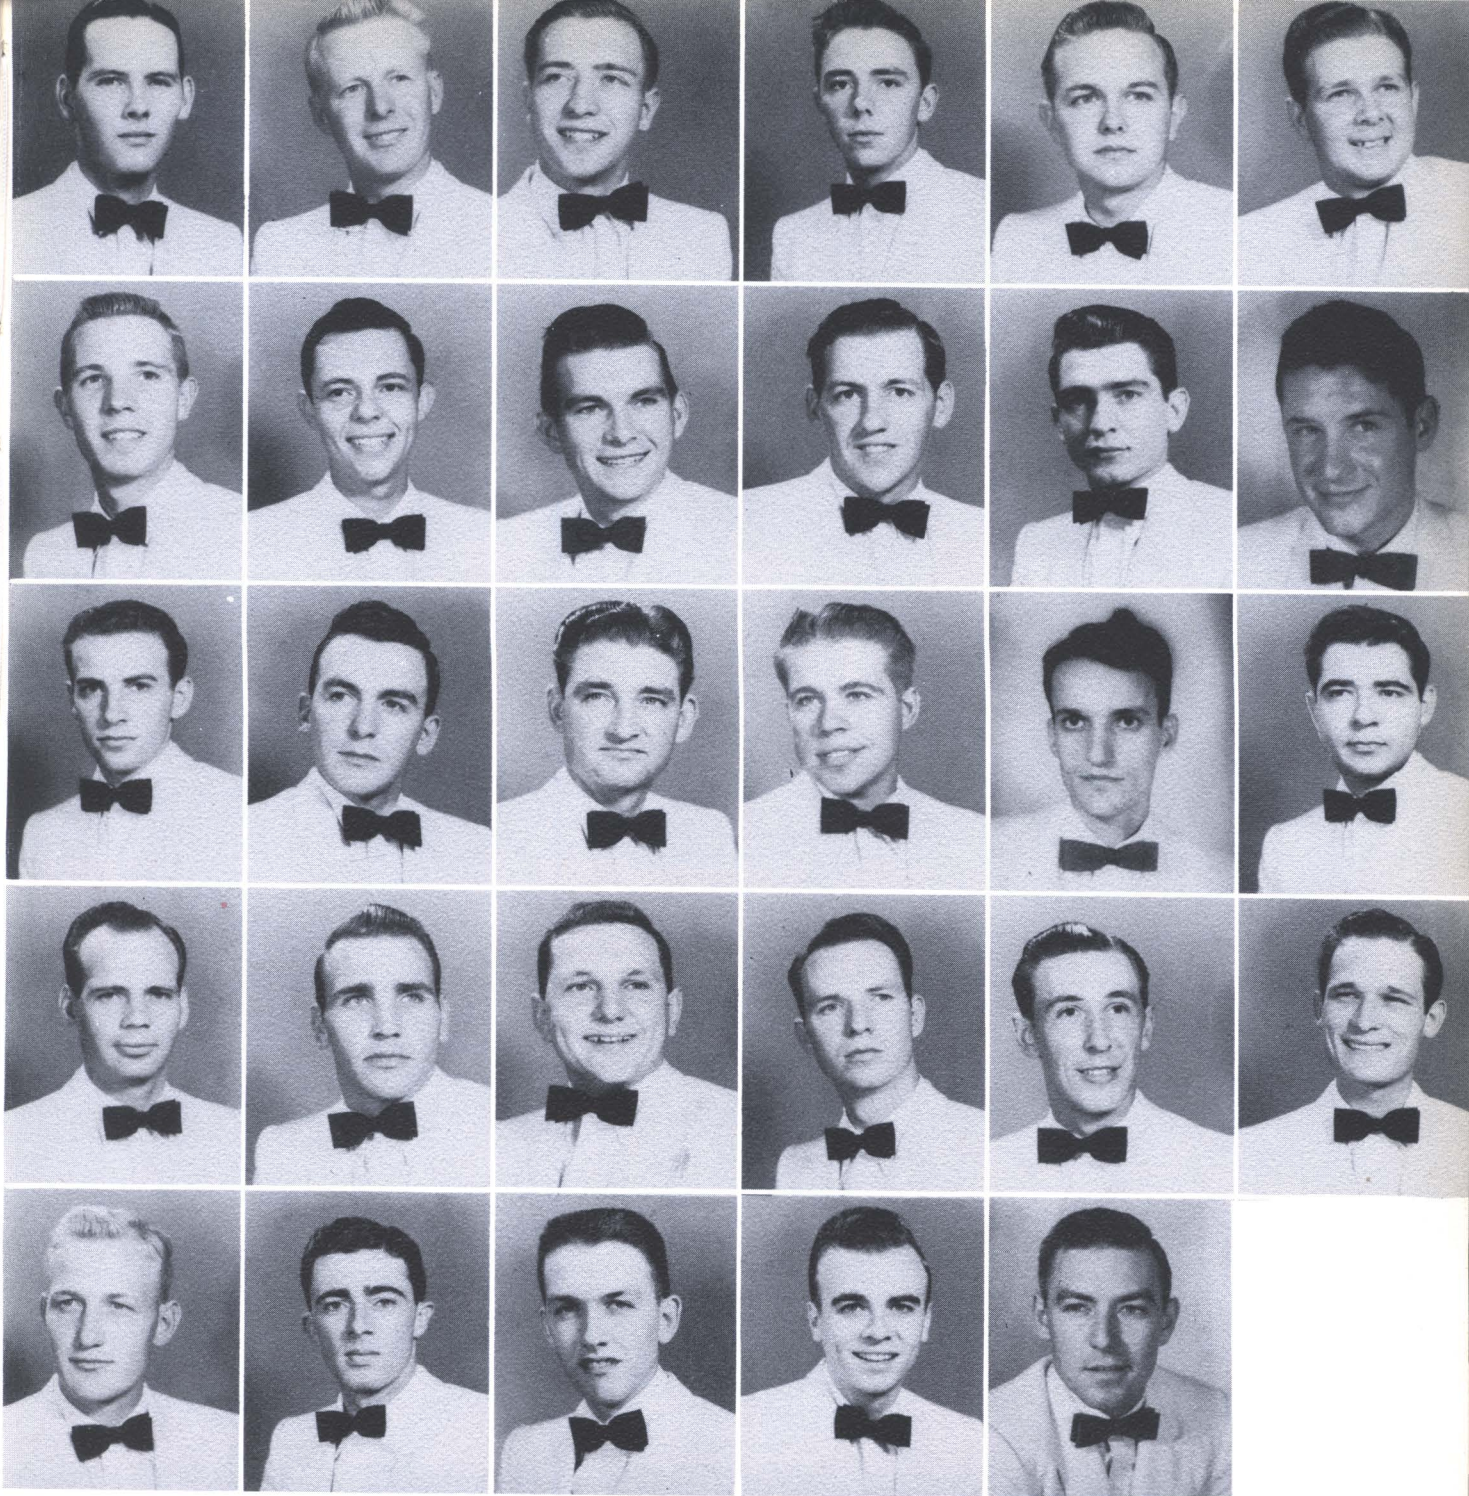

Eta chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon is headed this year by Joe Duggan, a senior from Denison.

The highlight of the 1952-53 year for the Phi Sigs was their annual Christmas dance with Carl Castle and his orchestra playing.

Miss Jackie McKay, Dallas, was elected sweetheart of the Phi Sigs and rode on the float during the parade.

The members were kept busy with the various activities they planned. They were co-hosts for the Sadie Hawkins dance, participated in the traditional Christmas Candlelighting and joined with the other Greeks to gather food for needy families before Thanksgiving.

The Phi Sigs and Pi Kaps joined forces to present the Follies in the spring. Last year in the Beaux Arts Ball, the Phi Sigs won several honors: first place mural, first place booth, second place skit and three individual costume prizes.

Mu

Chapter

Mu chapter had an interesting and eventful year at Southeastern. Headed by Ronnie Holton, Antlers Senior, they took part in the all-Greek affairs, including the Thanksgiving drive for canned goods for needy families, and the Sadie Hawkins dance. Their alumni gave them a welcome gift, a neon sign for their fraternity house.

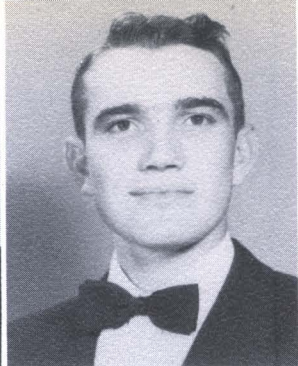

Their Christmas formal was one of the highlights of the year for the Taus.

The Sigma Taus had the winning float in the Homecoming Parade. Doris Harper, Rose of Sigma Tau, rode in the prize float.

Big event of the spring for the Sigma Taus is always the Frontier Dance.

Interfraternity Council

The Interfraternity council is composed of representatives of the four social fraternities and sororities. Sponsors are John T. Krattiger, dean of students, and Miss Effie Montgomery, dean of women.

Council officers this year were Joe Duggan, president; Ronnie Holton, vice president; and Mary Helen Carlat, secretary-treasurer.

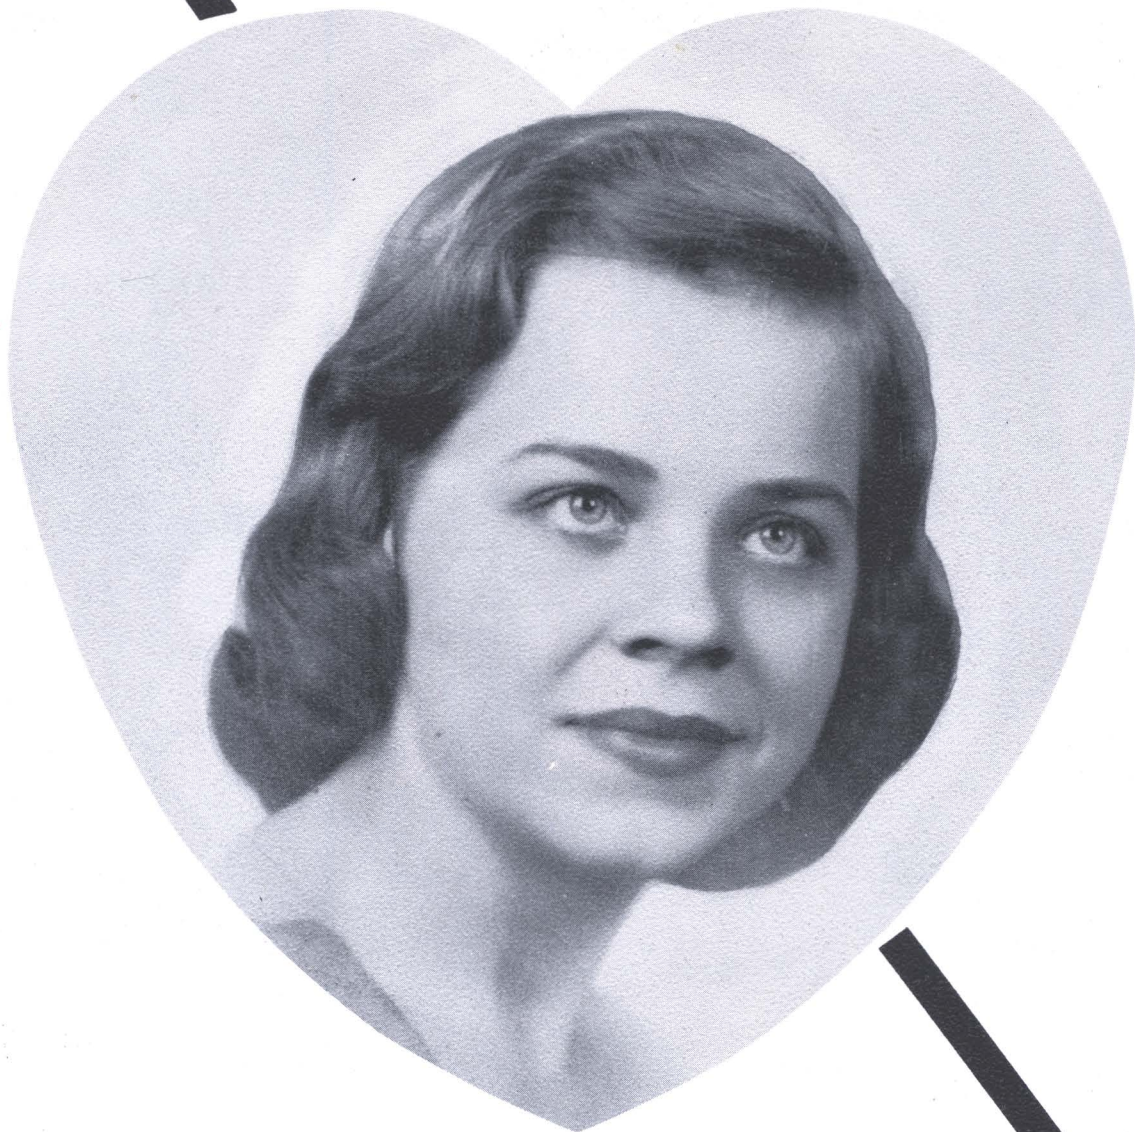

Rushing regulations and other policies are worked out for the four groups by the council. A number of social events, including the Sadie Hawkins dance, were sponsored this year by the council, which also sponsored a drive for canned goods at Thanksgiving time. The drive provided food for needy families of the city.

College Players

College Players, speech and dramatics organization, participates in all phases of dramatic work and contributes much to the social life on the campus.

The club usually presents two outstanding plays during the school year. "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," the love story of Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning, was presented last spring. The play, one of the first of its kind to be presented at Southeastern, was received with warm enthusiasm by both students and faculty.

This year the organization constructed all of the properties for the opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors" presented at the candlelighting service.

Womens Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association, better known to everyone as the WAA, is another organization which has enjoyed widespread recognition and success, even though it was only established at Southeastern in 1940. Affiliation with the national organization came in the same year.

Flying the colors purple and gold, the WAA finds that working together is lots of fun. The spring all-state trip at Camp Jack Little and the annual manless dance have already become traditional as well as the all-girl parties which have found a place in WAA.

DAVE STEVENS
Head Coach

Dave Stevens, head football coach, is a graduate and former athlete of Southeastern. He came to Southeastern in 1941 and has a very impressive record behind him.

Coach Stevens' Savages have won three conference titles since 1946 and have finished second three times and tied for fourth once.

In the past seven years he has won 42 games, lost 23, and tied 4. Coach Stevens also serves as track coach.

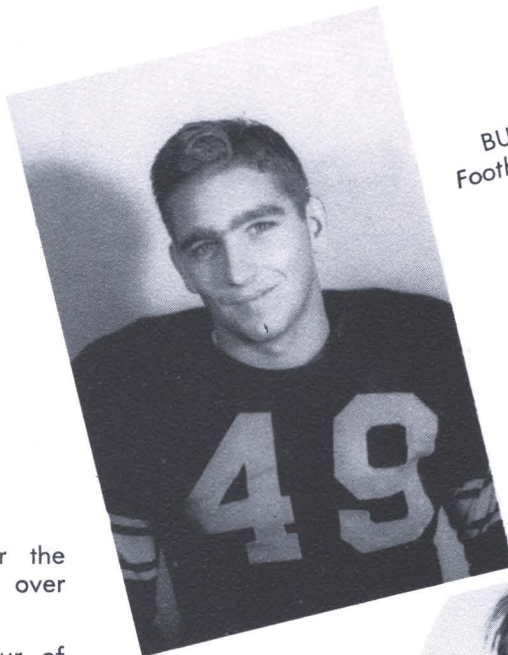

Although the Savages have not won a track crown in the past six years, they finished second in 1947, 1948, and 1949.

They were nosed out by OBU in 1947 by two points and again in 1948 by 1/3 point. The 1952 Savages finished the season with four wins against four losses, but those who watched them play know that the team was much better than their record indicated.

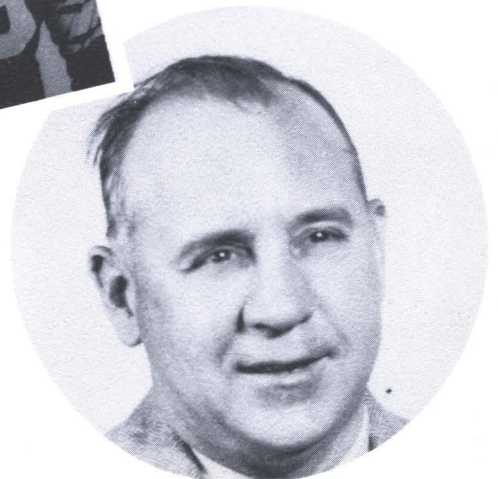

The highlight of the season for the Stevensmen was their 7 to 6 win over Austin College.

Although the team won only four of their eight games, they proved themselves worthy with their fight, hustle, and sportsmanship.

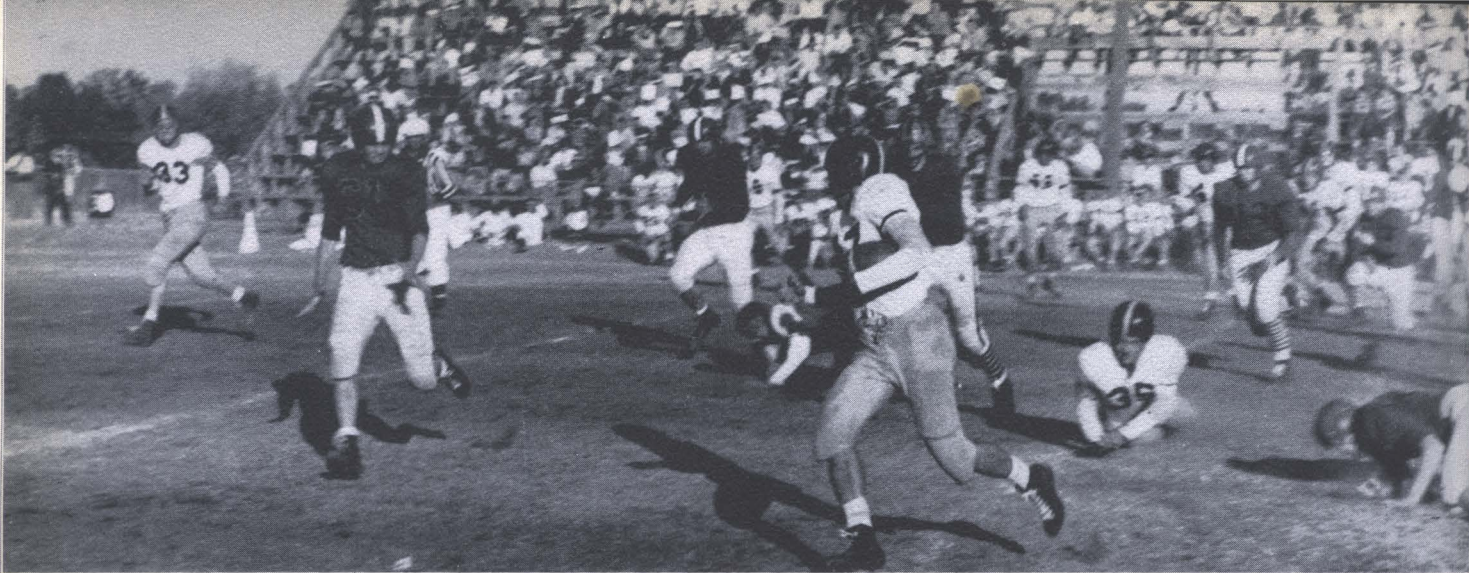

Again this year as in the past, Coach Stevens was assisted by the very capable Bloomer Sullivan.

Although their conference showing was fourth, the 1952 Savages gave their loyal fans their money's worth from the start of the season until that disappointing loss to Ada—East Central's first win over S.S.C. in eight years.

The first game with Austin College, with the Savages the underdogs in all the sports writers predictions, was a thrilling opening for the Southeastern crowd which traveled to Denison for the Kiwanis-sponsored game.

Stevens has every reason to hope for an outstanding team during the next few years, since many of this year's squad were Freshmen.

Southeastern pulled the biggest upset of the young season, September 19 as the Savages defeated heralded Austin College 7-6.

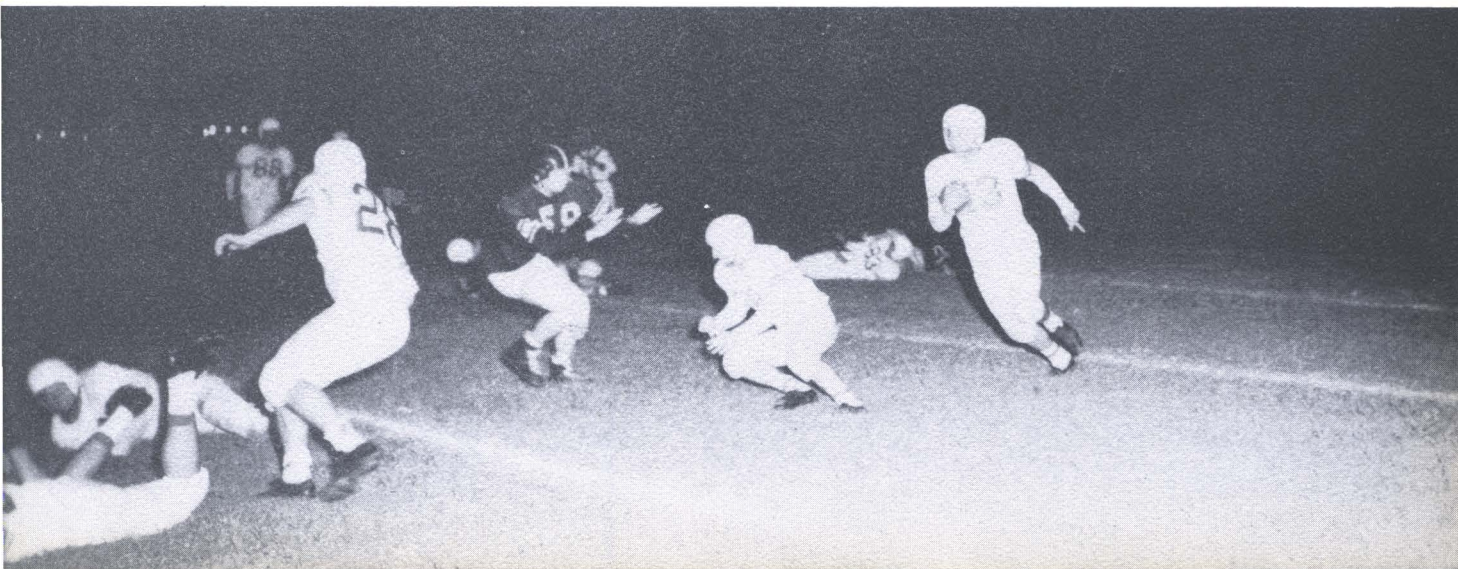

Little Herbie Adams, a Senior transfer student from Florida, brought Southeastern fans to their feet with a dazzling 75-yard punt return for the winning touchdown in the third quarter.

The Central Bronchos, led by Quarterback Don Reed, fired three touchdown passes to lead Central in a 19-0 victory over Southeastern at Paul Laird Field October 3.

The Savages' ground attack caught fire the second half as Dave Emerson, Herbie Adams, and Bill Hughes ran the ball to the Central 20 yard line. That was as far as the Savages could go as a fumble again ruined the scoring opportunity.

Led by Herbie Adams and Bill Hughes, Southeastern got its first conference win of the season as the Savages downed Northwestern 14-7 October 18.

The homecoming crowd went away happy as the Savages fought off two last-period drives by the Rangers to sew up the victory.

It was Bill Hughes and Herbie Adams in the drivers' seat again as they led Southeastern to a 28-7 victory over Ouachita at Paul Laird field October 24.

Southeastern moved a step closer to a second-place tie in the Collegiate Conference October 31, when the Savages shaded Southwestern 7-6 at Weatherford. Winning touchdown of this game was made on a run by David Emerson. George Barnett booted his eighth extra point of the season to give the Savages their margin of victory.

Southern State, Magnolia, Arkansas, scored in the first quarter and was never headed as they took a 27-14 verdict from Southeastern on Paul Laird field November 7.

The Savages were led by linebackers Bud Bahner and Buddy Tomme; ends, Billy Mills and Kenneth Anderson, and guard Loyd Ernst.

A fired-up band of East Central Tigers took their first football victory in eight years from Southeastern as they downed the Savages 42 to 14 at Ada November 14.

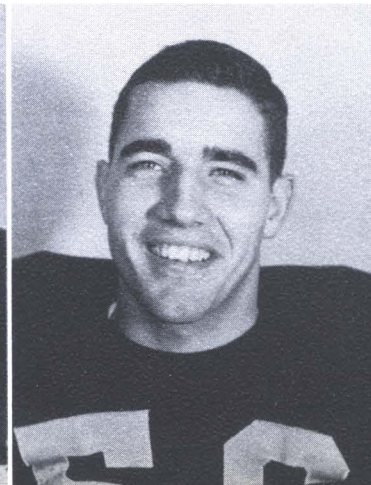

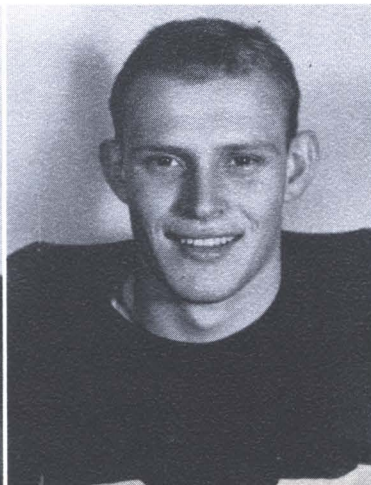

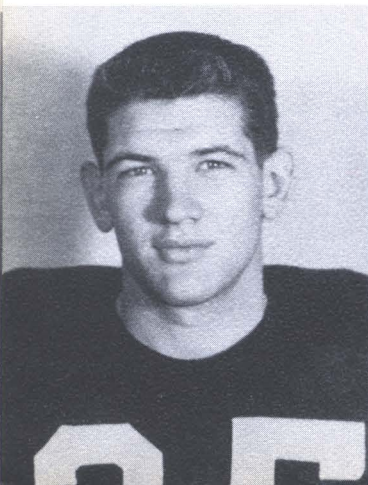

George Barnett kept his 1000 average intact as he booted his 13th extra point in 13 attempts for the season.

By defeating the Savages, East Central earned a second-place tie with Central in the final Conference standings, while the Savages skidded to a fourth-place tie with Southwestern.

The Southeastern "B" team played five games, winning three and losing two.

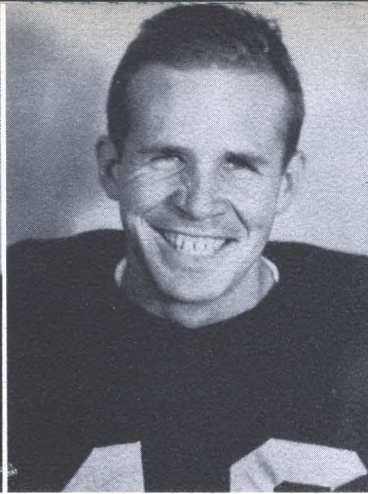

Murray A&M, Tishomingo, bowed down to the little Savages twice, losing one game 13-6 and the other 18-0.

Southeastern defeated Eastern A&M 13-6 and lost to the McAlester Outlaws 20-7 and Conners A&M 27-21.

BLOOMER SULLIVAN
Director of Athletics
Head Basketball Coach

Coach Sullivan is known as one of the best of the country's small college basketball coaches. His teams have brought honor and distinction to Southeastern.

For five consecutive years his boys won the Oklahoma Collegiate Conference championship. Once again this season he gave the college a team of which it could be justly proud.

Sullivan is also football line coach and baseball coach.

S.S.C.'s Basketballers

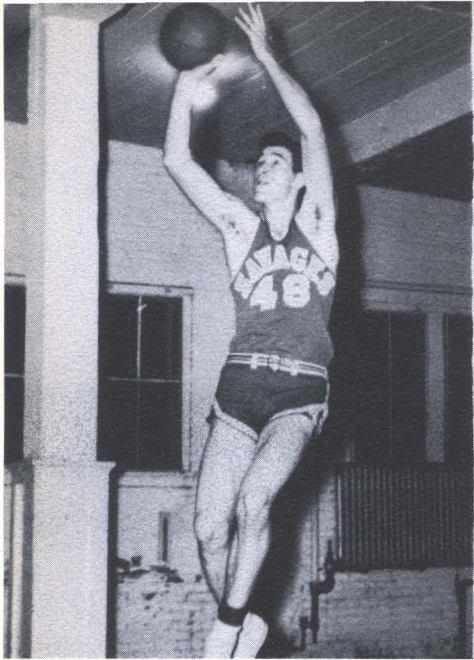

Dean Cox, Hubert Merritt, Bud Spencer, Boyd Converse, Jim Stine, Paul Davis, J. C. Curtis, Earl Curtis, Jerry Hall, Harold Owens, Leon Kennedy, Dennis Willard, Wes Smithart.

The Savage basketball team, led by the capable guiding hand of Bloomer Sullivan, is always the team to beat in the Collegiate Conference.

Returning from last year's championship team are Earl Curtis, all-conference; Buddy Spencer, a veteran from last year; J. C. Curtis, Dennis Willard, Boyd Converse, and Jerry Hall.

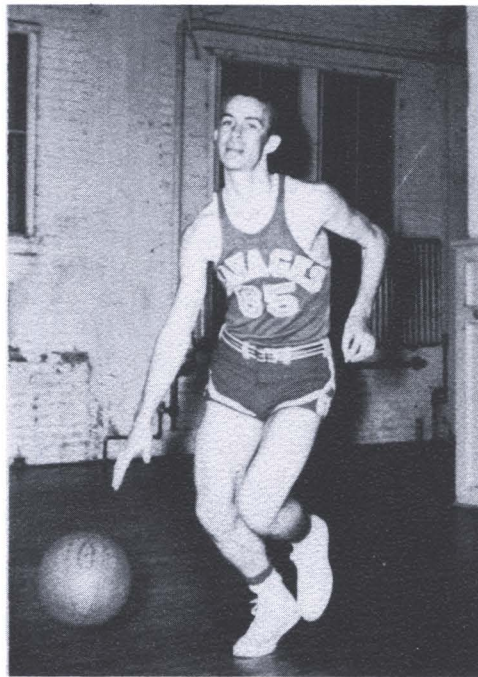

To this date, the team has won over Northeastern, Southwestern, Northwestern, O. B. U., and Phillips. The Savages lost their games with East Central and Central.

CLARENCE DYER
Tennis Coach

Clarence Dyer, Southeastern's dynamic tennis coach, has tutored the Savages' tennis squad for six years and has yet to finish below second place in the Collegiate Conference. He has enjoyed conference crowns in 1947, 1949, 1950, 1951, 1952, and finished second in 1948.

Supplied last year with only one returning regular, Coach Dyer's netmen captured the conference title in addition to every place in the conference tournament. Last year, with Kenneth Lewis, the returning regular in the number one spot, Max Prewitt, who saw limited action in the number two spot, along with two newcomers, Raydean "Cotton" Fryer, and Cecil Duncan, the team won every conference match. At the end of school the team traveled to Abilene, Texas, to the National Association of Inter-Collegiate Athletics Tournament and had the only double winner registered in the history of the meet.

Lewis brought first recognition to Southeastern when he won third place in the singles, while the double team composed of Duncan and Prewitt won third place in doubles. With these wins, the Savage team is currently ranked third in the nation.

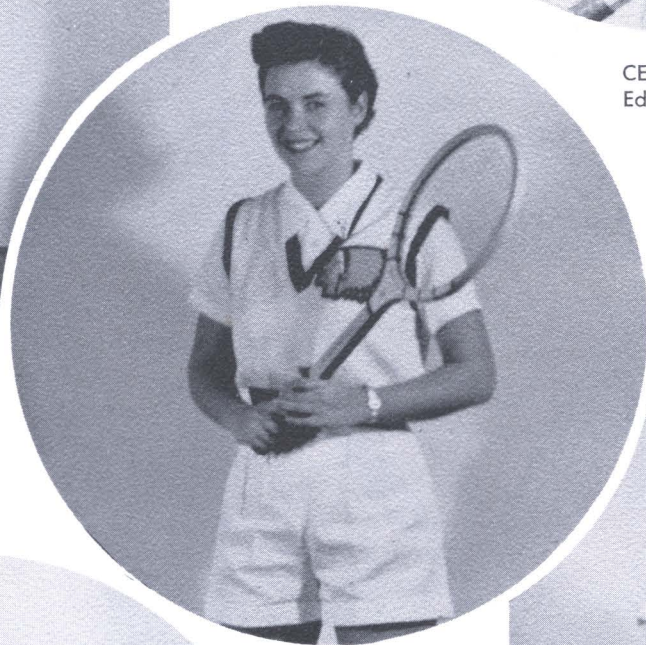

All this is due to Coach Dyer's great efforts to bring the game of tennis some recognition to Southeastern.

The Southeastern Savage baseball team, under the guiding hand of Coach Bloomer Sullivan, finished second in the conference race last spring. Winning all conference tilts with the exception of the Southwestern game, the Savages showed a fighting spirit, coming from behind several times to emerge the victors. Led by Cotton Converse, Leo Long, Fern Smathers, Skeeter England, and Larry Hendrix, the Savages were constantly a threat to the opposition. Returning lettermen are Leo Long, Boyd Converse, Roger Lindley, Skeeter England, Larry Hendrix, Dwight Rodgers, and Jimmy Brock.

The three Kings and the Page

The 1952 Christmas Candlelighting Service at Southeastern will long be remembered. The Menotti opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors," had its Oklahoma premiere, when the college music department presented it at the Christmas service.

Realism and humor, in addition to the beauty of the music, give the Menotti opera unique charm; and the Southeastern performance was a treasured Christmas present from the college to Durant and the district.
