DR. ALLEN E. SHEARER
President of Southeastern State College

For the past 17 years Dr. Shearer has been an administrator of Southeastern State College. He came to the campus in 1938 as Dean of the College and began a long period of devoted service to the institution, its students, and its ideals. Since July 1952, when he was elected president, his same loyal devotion to Southeastern has found new and greater opportunities for service.

Kappa Chapter, a chapter of the largest and oldest of the social educational sororities, has had a very successful 1954-55. The high lights of the year were the beautiful Pi Kappa Christmas Formal and the "May Day" Dance. The local chapter was awarded the Pi Kappa Sigma gold scholarship cup for having the highest grades of all the chapters in the United States.

Mu chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity was the first social fraternity on the campus. Its purpose is to promote friendship, integrity, honesty, fidelity, and scholarship among the students of Southeastern State College.

The Sigma Taus takes pride in their annual Frontier Dance which is one of the foremost social events on the campus.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

John Krattiger and Effie Montgomery,
Sponsors.

The I. F. C. of Southeastern was organized in 1931. Its membership is made up of two representatives from each recognized social fraternity on the campus. At present the council consists of eight members, representatives of Sigma Tau Gamma, Pi Kappa Sigma, Alpha Sigma Tau, and Phi Sigma Epsilon.

The purpose of the organization is to regulate the activities of the social fraternities on the campus of Southeastern.

Officers: Harolyn Pierce, Secretary; Cecil Duncan, President; Jiggs McVay, Vice President.

Interfraternity council sponsors the all-Greek canned food drive for needy families at Thanksgiving time.

WHO'S WHO in American Colleges and Universities

JACK BARNETT, social science major from Gainesville, Texas, has combined music and athletics in his college life. A football and basketball player, Jack has also found time to sing with the choir and men's quartet. He's a Sigma Tau and member of Blue Key.

ALICE BARTEE, Ardmore English major, is editor of The Southeastern, president of Hallie McKinney Hall, Miss Teacher of '54 and in Kappa Delta Pi, Cardinal Key, and Sigma Tau Delta. Music is also an important interest. In fact, there are few activities at Southeastern in which Alice has not participated during her stay on the campus.

CLARECE BROWN, business education major from Wright City, manages to keep up with class assignments in a most creditable manner while taking part in Pi Omega Pi, Kappa Delta Pi, W. R. A., F. T. A., Cardinal Key, and other worthwhile groups.

SHERRY HERRON, Durant home economics major, is already putting class theory into practice in her daily routine of housewife. She also finds time to do more than a good job in other fields of study, and is the 1954-'55 president of Kappa Delta Pi.

BILL JONES, Durant social science major, has combined work downtown and study during his college days and has excelled in both. This year he heads the Southeastern chapter of Blue Key. He is a business education major.

WINNIE JONES, business education major from Idabel, has found the year 1954-55 almost entirely taken up by The Savage, of which she is editor. But she still found time to continue work with her sorority, Pi Kappa Sigma, Wesley Foundation and with the student senate. She is a member of Cardinal Key, Kappa Delta Pi, and represented Pi Omega Pi at its Chicago convention. Winnie is the 1954-'55 Rose of Sigma Tau.

Bill Jones

Winnie Jones

KENNETH KITCHENS, chemistry major from Red Oak, was named the outstanding student senator of the first semester. He is president of F. T. A. and a member of Blue Key.

RUSSELL McCREARY, industrial arts major from Dundee, has mixed athletics with other extra-curricular activities and has been a valuable member of the student senate. In 1954-'55 he was the "favorite" of Cardinal Key and Alpha Sigma Tau social sorority. He is also in Blue Key and is a Sigma Tau.

WHO'S WHO

in American Colleges and Universities

DON MARSHALL, Cobb math major, is president of the Sigma Tau, and vice president of the student senate. He is a member of Blue Key, Magic Pentagon, and the interfraternity council. In 1954 he was named Beaux Arts Ball King.

JO ANN PRATER, math major from Haworth, has done effective work as a student senate officer and member. She belongs to W. R. A., Magic Pentagon, F. T. A., and Cardinal Key.

BILLY MILLS, Antlers history major, is president of the student senate and was '55 captain of the football team. He has also served as president of B. S. U. and is a member of Blue Key.

JUANITA RAGAN, business education major from Indianola, has managed to keep a superior school record while serving as a valuable assistant to the college dietitian. Among the organizations in which she takes part are her sorority, Pi Kappa Sigma, and Pi Omega Pi.

EMMA ROPER, Durant elementary education major, started her college career after she had already made a good start on the career of housewife. She has made a good school record and has contributed to extra-curricular activities. Among her organizations are Cardinal Key and Disc Jockey. She was runner-up in the Southeastern Future Teachers contest.

SUE FRENCH SHOOK, Durant music major, is best known as a talented singer who has contributed to many musical programs. She is a member of Pi Kappa Sigma and Cardinal Key.

LYNDA WOOD, English major from Caddo, has been an effective officer and member of Cardinal Key. She has been a valuable student of Southeastern and of O. P. C., where she makes her college home and serves as secretary to the president. She is in Wesley Foundation, Kappa Delta Pi, student senate, and Sigma Tau Delta.

WAYNE WYLIE, Durant history major, has an outstanding record at the college and has also held a responsible job downtown. He is in the "O" Club, Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, Kappa Delta Pi, and one of the few student members of the history fraternity, Phi Alpha Theta.

GLENNA WRIGHT, Durant business education major, won the national scholarship prize of her sorority, Pi Kappa Sigma, this year. Among her organizations are Cardinal Key, Kappa Delta Pi, and Pi Omega Pi. She was 1954 Beaux Arts Ball Queen.

KENNETH FERGUSON

Fifth row: Bill Gibson, Bill Pierce, Jimmy Walker, Jiggs McVay, Cal Stewart, Wydeman Sanders, Raymond Hopkins. Sixth row: Grady Cottle, Harry Landers, Gene Redman, Jack Austin.

FOOTBALL

The '54 football season had its share of thrills and heartbreak. A small group at best, the Savages succeeded in beating the top team in the collegiate conference, Central, (9-0), in beating the '53 conference champions, the Northeastern Redmen, (13-9), and in beating Ouachita, the next to the best small college in Arkansas, and in tying Southern State which was ranked among the top small college teams in the nation. There were losses, too, but the thrills were there and the sportsmanship that makes this country great was there, too. Southeastern finished third in conference play. They placed Buddy Donley (fullback) and Bill McClain (end) on two conference all-opponent teams. McClain made the collegiate "all-conference." Center Bud Bahner made the second team all-conference and was a candidate for the "Little All-American Team."

SOUTHEASTERN 12      AUSTIN 35

Powerful Austin College flexed its muscles and was turned back by a gritty band of Savages during the first half. But when the smokes of battle had cleared, and the outnumbered and outweighed band of Savages turned their faces again towards Durant at home, the score board showed dimly through misty eyes, Austin 35, Southeastern 12.

SOUTHEASTERN 38      OUACHITA 34

Southeastern fans were both surprised and pleased as the Savages unleashed a bevvy of hard running, fleet-footed backs as they pushed to the finest offensive showing of the year. Ouachita's passing game and Southeastern's poor pass defense proved almost disastrous to the Savages. In the final quarter Southeastern shoved across 18 points to win the game by a scant 4 points. Halfbacks Bill Pierce and Wydeman Sanders led the way. Final score: Southeastern 38, Ouachita 34.

SOUTHEASTERN 9    CENTRAL 0

The old grads went home smiling as the fast improving Savages forged to a 9-0 win for the homecoming crowd. Quarterback Cal Stewart was "Mr. Field General" himself as he called a near perfect game and booted a 13 yard field goal early in the third quarter. Bruising fullback Bud Donley added the clincher in the fourth stanza as he smashed 13 yards to score. Another highlight on this sunny afternoon was Donley's booming punt and an unorthodox 4-5 defense that limited Central's backs to a base 87 yards rushing.

SOUTHEASTERN 13    NORTHEASTERN 9

Still on the warpath the Savages journeyed to Tahlequah where they were poor guests to the host Redmen. The high-flying Savages stung the Redmen for the first defeat in three years on their home field, a loss that they never quite got over. It was a team victory with Steve Paskorz on the receiving end of a Buddy Donley aerial, and a short smash by Wydeman Sanders getting the TD's.

SOUTHEASTERN 7 SOUTHERN STATE (ARK.) 7

Southern State met an over shifted five-man defense sparked by center Bud Bahner, guard Kenneth Beard, and linebacker Bill McClain. This, coupled with a 57 yard touchdown run by Bill Pierce, sent the Mule Riders back to Arkansas happy to come away with a 7-7 tie. The game was a slam bang affair that was said by many to be the best and the hardest fought of the season. Mussing the inspired play of the Savages were eleven fumbles which almost proved disastrous.

SOUTHEASTERN 7      MEMPHIS NAVAL BASE 27

The Savages seeking their fourth win journeyed in vain to Memphis. The game, played in 78 degree midafternoon heat, was too much for the disheartened Savages. Cal Stewart kept Southeastern very much in the game with his pin-point passes until late in the third quarter. End Bill McClain got the only Southeastern score on a 47-yard Stewart pass. Final score Southeastern 7, Memphis 27.

SOUTHEASTERN 14      EAST CENTRAL 56

The annual rivalry between the East Central Tigers and the Southeastern Savages was won by East Central by the lop-sided score of 56-14. The Savages played without the services of their fine right halfback, Wydeman Sanders, who earlier in the week had broken his right leg. This accident seriously hampered the Savage offensive.

BASKETBALL OF '54-'55

Southeastern's basketball team got away to a fast start this year as S. S. C. drubbed three foes before tasting first defeat at the hands of Weyland College. The Savages got more experience under their belts during the Christmas holidays as they took off on an extended road trip through Texas, Louisiana, and Arkansas. They compiled a string of victories over the leading small colleges in those states while preparing for the tough competition in their own Oklahoma collegiate conference. Coach Sullivan's boys lost twice on the road, once to Northwest Louisiana, a team they had handled easily only the night before, and to host team McNeese in the finals of the Lake Charles tourney.

All-Conference Jerry Hall, Harold Owens and "Snag" Kennedy, all starters from last year's N.A.I.A. district nine champs, formed the nucleus for this year's team. James Spivey, Dee McCorkle, Billy Johnson, and Dean Cox, all lettermen from last year's team, were joined by several promising freshmen to give Southeastern the deadliest shooting crew they have had in several years.

As we go to press the Savages are out front in the conference and have not suffered a loss while each of the other conference teams has gone down in defeat at least twice. It appears the Savages will have another conference trophy to put in their show case and will be off to Kansas City come March.

COACH BLOOMER SULLIVAN

ASSISTANT COACH JAMES BOWERS

Hey, get back!

SOUTHEASTERN 68 O. B. U. 50

Southeastern opened the conference war with a 68-50 win over towering O. B. U at Shawnee. James Spivey, sophomore center, led the scorers with 19 points. Close on Spivey's heels were Leon Kennedy with 13 points, Dean Cox with 11 points, and Jerry Hall who got 10 points.

SOUTHEASTERN 90 PHILLIPS 77

It was sophomore ace Spivey again leading Southeastern with 31 points as the Savages continued their winning ways with a 90-77 defeat of Phillips University at Enid.

SOUTHEASTERN 94    CENTRAL 69

The usually hot shooting Savages were extremely cold in the first half of their game and held only a 38-35 advantage at halftime. Johnson sparked a rally in the second half with 15 points as the Savages turned a close game into a 94-69 rout. Spivey and Hall shared scoring honors with 20 points apiece.

SOUTHEASTERN 74      SOUTHWESTERN 47

Southwestern jumped into a two point lead that was quickly erased by Leon Kennedy who hit two rapid fire setups to put the Savages ahead. With 7 minutes and 41 seconds remaining in the first half, Savage guard Harold Owens held the ball near the center line as the Bulldogs refused to come out of their tight zone defense. Then Owens held the ball for 7 minutes and 31 seconds and then got the last shot of the first half. Halftime score was S. E. C. 28, S. W. 19. The Savages pulled away to a 74-47 victory in the second stanza. Kennedy led the scorers with 22 points followed by Hall and Owens with 14 and 12 points.

BACK TO THE AD BUILDING after a coffee break for Dr. Shearer and Mr. Jackson.

OFFICERS: Alice Barte, President; Waurane Foster, Vice President; Betty Crossland, Secretary; Billye Wallace, Treasurer; Norma Case, Historian.

Hallie McKinney Hall, girls' dorm completed in 1949, is always a center of social activity, in addition to providing most modern living quarters for Southeastern girls.

S.S.C. coeds are leaving for Sunday School.

LIFE AT HALLIE MCKINNEY HALL

It looks as if there must be a dance on the schedule.

Date time.

Mrs. Caldwell—Hallie McKinney Hall's first lady.

Some people do try to study.

Mail plays a big part in dorm life.

Betty and Mary do their chores.

Ann, what kind of collection is this?

S.S.C. coeds eat, too.

Ma Nelson—Shearer Hall's first lady.

DORM OFFICERS: Dan Nutter, Secretary; Doyle Bostic, President; Jack Barnett, Vice President; Robert Gaddy, Treasurer.

It looks like Kelwyn Ellis is making good use of the broom.

Best foot forward for church!

LIFE AT SHEARER HALL

A quiet evening at home for some of the boys.

John displays where his interests lie.

Ma Nelson adjusts the TV for her boys.

Shearer Hall is the modern dormitory for men. This dormitory, constructed in 1953, has facilities for 116 students. The beautiful residence hall contains the type of living accommodations which are so important for successful college living.

Things are looking pretty dirty.

What's a little fun between roommates?

LIFE AT O.P.C.

OFFICERS: Lynda Wood, President; Millie Beecher, Secretary; Humberto de la Vega, Treasurer; Nina Pearson, Editor of "Peace Piper."

Beaver leads the chapel service.

Oklahoma Presbyterian College provides housing and boarding facilities at a very reasonable price for students who want religious training. Separate dormitories are provided for men and women students under consecrated guidance and in a home-like atmosphere.

Lynda says thumbs down on Jan and her bird.

A typical room in the men's dormitory.

The O.P.C. Council.

Mail call is always a happy time.

Where the food is always good.

Jan deals the cards.

The library—for those who study.

COFFEE SHOP

Johnny and Betty working their way through college.

That coffee—good to the last drop.

Rainwater must have cracked a funny.

Don't take it so hard, Ronnie, you'll get waited on some time.

COFFEE SHOP

The freshmen get 'orientated' in coffee shop.

It's ten o'clock—coffee hour!

Gayle gives some S.S.C. students some fast service.

It looks like an Alpha Sig gab session.

BEACHOLOGY

This looks like some fun!

This must have been one of those days when there was smooth sailing for Bette and Gene.

Won't they be surprised??

Well! Two can play that game.

Although it is several miles away, Willow Springs is an important part of the South-eastern "campus," particularly in the summer time. When summer days start arriving, swimming and picnicking are two of the most important "college courses."

They are all lined up for a big trip.

Say! Let's rent a boat.

Don't we look funny in the water?

Some of us just take it easy.

They must be playing "keep away" from Kiowa.

The SAVAGE BAND struts its stuff for HOMECOMING!

HOMECOMING

THE A CAPPELLA CHOIR decorated a float that tied for first place in the Homecoming parade.

Tying for first place was the ART CLUB'S tribute to alumni.

THE "ROSE OF SIGMA TAU" was the third place winner in the homecoming parade.

The cheerleaders ride in the parade.

O.P.C. said, "Skunk the Broncs."

The Seniors made a fine showing.

The Alpha Sig's "Belle of the Ball" was an attractive entry in the parade.

The Pi Kap pledges rode in the mayor's car.

The Queen and her attendants.

BEAUX ARTS BALL

Beaux Arts Ball King and Queen—Don Marshall, Sigma Tau Gamma; Glenna Anderson, Pi Kappa Sigma.

EVERYONE GOT INTO THE ACT for the grand march at the Beaux Arts Ball. King queens, Old Gold diggers—everyone in costume—made a pretty sight as they paraded before the judges.

KAY CUNNINGHAM'S PRIZE-WINNING MURAL, "AENEAS." Kay, a two-time winner in the Art club-sponsored ball, painted the mural for the Latin club.

THE BEAUX ARTS BALL is a traditional all-campus event at Southeastern. Sponsored by the Art Club, the ball is given each March. Campus organizations choose booths designed by art students to offer in competition for ball prizes. Campus groups also pick King and Queen candidates, decorate booths, and stage floor shows. A theme is selected each year and is carried out in murals, booths, and floor shows.

HOMER NOLEY'S PICTURE OF "ZEUS" was the second-place winner. He was sponsored by Wesley Foundation.

BLUE RIBBON HONORS WENT TO ALPHA SIGMA TAU sorority for a skit based on "Arachne." The choreography was done by Annie Aston.

SECOND-PLACE SKIT HONORS WENT TO PI KAPPA SIGMA SORORITY. Madge Fort did the choreography for the classical and modern "Tribute to Apollo."

SOUTHEASTERN'S A CAPPELLA CHOIR sponsored the first-place booth—"Pandora and the Wonderful Box." Pat Foote portrayed Pandora.

CANDLELIGHTING AND CHRISTMAS

THE VIRGIN AND THE APPLE TREE.

MADONNA AND CHILD.

ST. JOSEPH AND THE CHRIST CHILD.

CHOIR STUDENTS WHO TOOK PART IN CANDLELIGHTING.

MRS. SHEARER IS HOSTESS TO CANDLELIGHTING PERFORMERS.

FACULTY JOINS STUDENTS AT CANDLELIGHTING PARTY.

"Candlelighting" is Southeastern's annual, impressive celebration of the Christmas season.

This year the college returned to its traditional Christmas service of carols, tableaux, and narration of the Nativity, after presenting "Amahl and the Night Visitors" for two seasons.

FRIENDSHIP FIRE

President Shearer participates in Friendship Fire.

The Hellhounds contribute their paddle.

The Friendship fire is held early in the fall. The school assembles en masse, and each class and organization casts an appropriate token of good will and friendship upon the flames.

Annie and Bob throw in the choir symbol.

There! The Hellhounds have done it.

Bill and Wanda throw the student senate gavel on the fire.

Laura and Bill represent publications.

OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Sandra and Jim and the little Andersons have supper.

John and Lilo Means invite Leverette Golden over—for homework.

Many of the students at S.S.C. are married and reside in Vet Village and other apartment and housing residences all over the city. These students are an active part of Southeastern life, and are oftentimes among the most outstanding students on the campus.

David Clark gives James and Betty Jones a ride home with their purchases.

The end of another busy day for the Derricks—M. K. and Mildred.

Robert and Mary Park share the housekeeping chores.

John Huckabay helps wife Fay with the clothes.

SADIE HAWKINS DANCE

Bud Bahner and Wanda McNeely.

Buddy Donley and Doris Mead.

Bascom Melson and Lynne Smith; Jackie Allen and Sue McKinney.

Johnny Page and Nancy Ratcliff.

Joe Wilkins and Lou Castleberry; Virginia Neal and Hoot DeVoe.

Letha Fly and Doyle Bostic.

Kay Miller

AROUND THE CAMPUS

He made the team as captain.

Does Bill McClain ever go to class?

It looks like Wanda has a choice.

Winnie Jones, Rose of Sigma Tau, is honored by Don Marshall, president, at the "White Ball."

All alone in the big cruel world.

Khalid Fattah before he started his S.S.C. harem.

Hatch—Ma Nelson's right hand man at work.

Miss Downs pours at the faculty-student reception.

This is what you call "diggin' in."

Joe ought to go out for cheerleader.

Alpha Sig beau soaking up sunshine.

Wonder what they're doing??

Shearer Hall Christmas spirit.

This was obviously posed.

Some tooth paste company will probably hire them.

He doesn't know that he's going in the wrong door.

Starting two careers—college and marriage.

A scene from the Sigma Tau Frontier dance.

Pi Kaps won the scholastic cup for having highest grades of any chapter in the United States.

Cheerleaders show some action.

Is that the trash can, Dee?

The summer graduating seniors board the Idle Time for an excursion.

Now, Ann, wait your turn.

Ben Tarr shows his new gun case to his wife.

Industrial Arts majors spend a busy afternoon.

It must be Redman's first kiss.

Mrs. Williams pre-tests the library's air-conditioning.

"Oh! The life of a Pi Kap pledge," says Sue Musgrave.

Bill talks back to Alice even if she is Miss Future Teacher of Tomorrow.

It looks like a Sunday afternoon.

Sando—a star athlete even on crutches.

The big dogs of the Phi Sigs.

It's a tense moment in the summer-term intramurals.

President Shearer congratulates Frances Smith on being chosen 1955 yearbook queen.

This must be some project.

Mrs. Meadows lets Jan get in on the picnic festivities.

"Joe, this is where you sign your name," says Mrs. Chatham.

The Hungry Five perform in style.

Cecil, the champ, shows off his tennis trophies.

Phyllis, Betty, and Frank take part in Stunt Night.

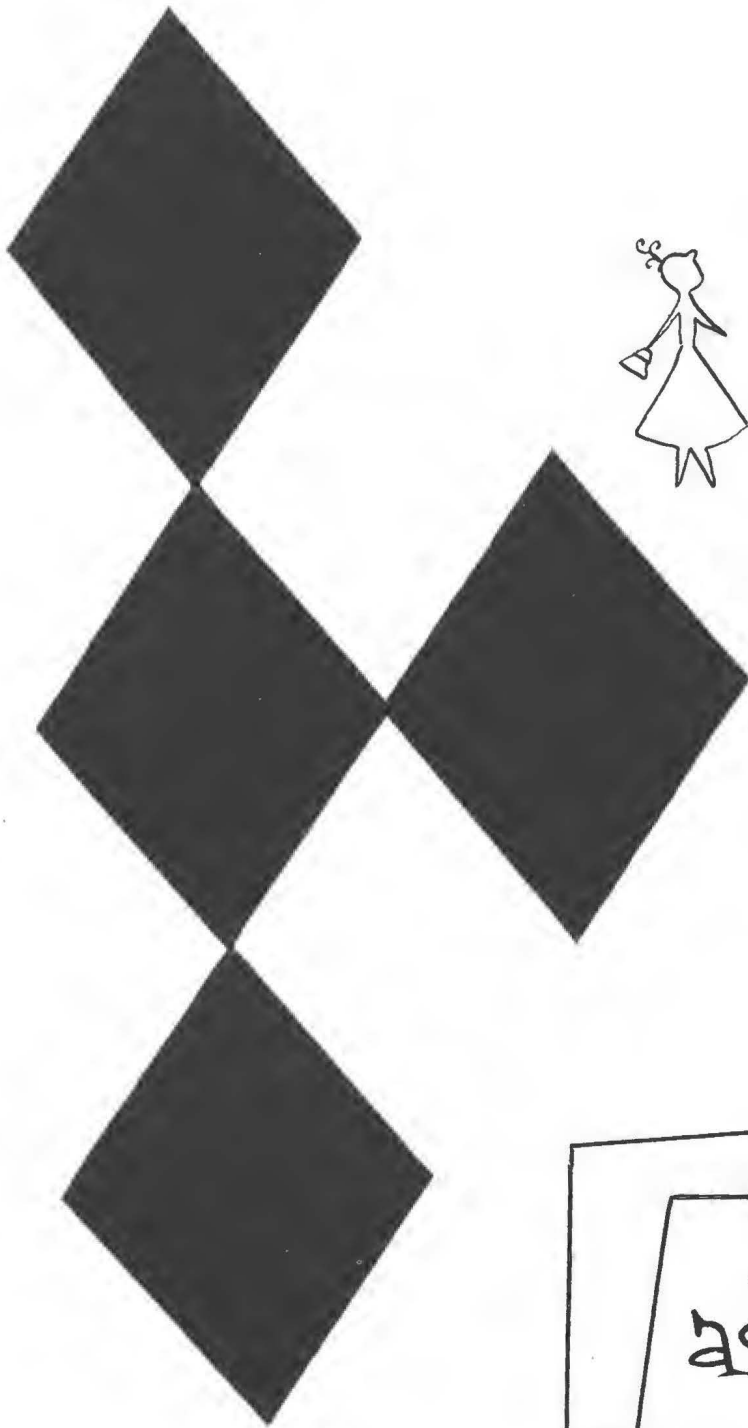

Phi Sig Christmas Formal.

Pi Kap Christmas Formal.

Sigma Tau "White Rose" Ball.

Time for music!

Time for sleep!

Time for coffee!

WELL! . . . WE HARDLY KNOW WHAT TO SAY!

All of a sudden we have time to do all the things we've been wanting to do all year! Like just plain relaxing, without the yearbook hanging over our heads, going to a movie, having dates, and—most of all—sleeping.

We wonder how long this will last? We love it now but have the feeling that within a few days we'll be finding time on our hands. Seriously though . . . it's been real!

Things that happen while working on the yearbook are things that cannot be forgotten. Now that it is all over we can laugh about the missed classes, late hours, worries . . . low grades, professors who wondered where we were; Bill (the night watchman) who wouldn't let us in the yearbook room without Mrs. F. right behind us; the times we saw red and wanted to kill each other; Mrs. F., Jim and Erma always taking sides against the editor; the parents who wondered if we were still alive; Kay, who produced the terrific cover and divisional pages; Jerry Joe, Leslie, and Mr. Weaver, who made the pictures possible; Jim, who did all the layout drawing and made history selling ads; Sneaky McCreary, who entertained Jim and me and helped us get the old book out; Homer, who didn't say much but came up with some super art work in the ad section; Mrs. Pliny Frye, who let us cry on her shoulder between shipments, and our friends (those we have left) who supplied the coffee; the terrible fights between the SOUTHEASTERN STAFF (Hoot and Alice) and the SAVAGE STAFF; . . . but most of all we'll never forget the Student Union building, which housed us, our pictures (thousands), our coffee (gallons), our tears, and our smiles for a whole year.

So . . . here it is and we hope you enjoy it, because, believe it or not . . . We have!!!

THE EDITOR

Time for leafing!
