Melvin Brown, head coach at Southeastern State College, has finished his seventh year as coach of the Savages. He is certainly no newcomer to the football ranks. He was tutored by Charles "Bud" Wilkinson at the University of Oklahoma, where he lettered three years. During his tenure with the Sooners he was chosen All Big-Seven tackle his junior year, and All Big-Seven guard his senior year. In 1954, he was selected to the College All-Star team. Coach Brown is also a veteran of two bowl games, the Sugar Bowl in 1951 and the Orange Bowl in 1954.

SOUTHEASTERN 19, MEMPHIS NAVY 12

Playing before a crowd packed with sailors the Savages opened their season on a happy note dumping the navy crew 18-12. On the opening kick-off SSC's hard-hitting defense knocked loose the football and Norman West pounced on the rolling pigskin. In three plays the Savages rolled into the end zone with a perfect strike to open the scoring. Coach Brown's crew drove to another score with Duke Christian skirting the end after a beautiful fake. The sailors finally tied the score but the Savages wouldn't settle for it and they drove the length of the field. Then Earl Thomason carried over from the two for the first win of the season.

SOUTHEASTERN 20, AUSTIN 6

The Southeastern Savages gleefully carried home the Katy Bell when they knocked off the Kangaroos with a fourth quarter rally. The Sherman horde drove 83 yards for the first score of the game. The hometowners waited till the second half to begin its scoring spree. Thomason intercepted a pass and quarterback Christian lifted a payoff pass into the hands of end Branson Metcalf to knot the score. From that point the Savages never touched the brakes, posting two more six-pointers in the final period to carry away the second straight victory of the season.

The halting Savage defense closes the door on the speedy Kangaroo halfback.

SOUTHEASTERN 14, OUACHITA 20

The Savages, seeking their third straight win, were upset as a last quarter rally was stopped by an interception on the enemy's two yard line. The home team held a big edge in the statistical department, keeping a decisive 20-12 edge in first downs. The visitors took the opening kick-off and drove for their first tally of the game. After starting from their own 44 the Savages marched to the enemy 18 when halfback Earl Thomason rammed the final yardage for the Savage TD. Branson Metcalf posted the other SSC six on an 18-yard pass from southpaw Charlie Johnston.

SOUTHEASTERN 19, NORTHEASTERN 6

The Savages grabbed their first conference win against as many starts with Charlie Johnston sparking the first scoring drive against the enemy beginning at the Redmen's 42-yard line after a 32-yard punt return by the Savages' Blake Smiley. Fullback Jack Evans carried the final thirteen yards around right end to post the Savages' first score of the game. Johnston headed another drive of 36 yards with Granville Chandler carrying over for the second six. The insurance TD was identical to the Redmen's lone score, with Don Mayer rushing in to block an enemy punt and SSC's Depew scooping up the ball and rambling the remaining 17 yards.

NORTHWESTERN 26, SOUTHEASTERN 0

The Northwestern Rangers, with the return of previously injured Stewart Arthurs, surprisingly rolled to a 26-0 victory. The Savages, to this time, had not been defeated in conference play. Granville Chandler, star halfback of the conference leaders, was injured and it was feared he would be out the remainder of the season. Fullback Dave Holbrook scored two TDs in the first half and quarterback Bill Foster flipped a 27-yard pass to end Carl Lemon to give the hosts a 19-0 halftime lead. Arthurs was given credit for the final tally romping 11 yards to cap a 59-yard drive.

SSC 0, LANGSTON 38

The powerful Langston Lions showed their strength against the Savages as they snubbed the visitors at Guthrie. The loss erased the hopes of regaining the conference lead after the loss to Northwestern. Langston built up a 25-0 halftime lead and managed to add 13 more during the third and fourth periods. Number one passer in the country Donald Lee Smith was put out after an injury.

SOUTHEASTERN 20, SOUTHWESTERN 0

The Savages tamed the Bulldogs on a colorful homecoming afternoon. The home team trounced the visitors with drives and one interception, which paid off for the three counters and the tell-tale twenty points. Five times within the Savages' 20 yard line the inspired defense stopped the invaders cold for the ultimate shut-out. Brown's crew marched 73 yards for the first Southeastern TD. The tally for the home team came when Duke Christian completely faked the defense and waltzed into the end zone untouched. The next points occurred when Darvis Cole picked up a fumble and rambled 31 yards for the score. With fifty seconds left to play David Fronterhouse grabbed off a loose football and traveled to pay-dirt for the last posting of the affair.

SOUTHEASTERN 20, ARKANSAS TECH 49

The 19th ranked Wonder Boys of Arkansas Tech showed their might against the Savages with an awesome ground attack at Russellville, Arkansas. The bright point of the home team was the passing attack of quarterbacks Duke Christian and Charlie Johnston, who tapped the airways for 318 yards and three tallies. Statistic-wise the Savages made it a much better game than the final score showed, with the visiting crew winning in the first-down column 15-12.

SOUTHEASTERN 12, CENTRAL 59

Undefeated Central State crushed the Savages in trying to prove their superiority with a 47-point bulge in the first half. 11,500 people saw the Savages go down in Central's homecoming game. The Bronchos' powerhouse piled up 302 yards on the ground and 216 in the air for the 59 point massacre. End Jerry Bailey posted both of the visitors' counters taking a pair of aerials from Charlie Johnston and Duke Christian, respectively. The first Southeastern TD came at the end of an 85-yard drive when Bailey took the pitch from Johnston and dashed for the final 10 yards. Both scores came for SSC in the final quarter, the second one coming on a 15-yard aerial from Christian after traveling 53 yards in nine plays.

The East Central Tigers jumped to a 13-0 halftime lead but managed to add only six more in the entire second half. The Savages immediately after the intermission took the kickoff and marched 81 yards in nine plays to past their lone score of the evening. Earl Thomason lunged the final yard of the drive, the last one of the season, in the home finale.

BLOOMER SULLIVAN
Director of Athletics and Head Basketball Coach

Bloomer Sullivan, who serves as both head basketball coach and Athletic Director at SSC, fires into his 26th campaign with as much vigor as he did years ago when he decided he liked to coach the sport.

Sullivan has been showered with honors during his tenure, possibly reaching his highest point thus far when, in 1957, he was chosen NAIA Coach-of-the-Year. Sullivan stands fifth among the nation's cage mentors in number of games won and rates third with his winning percentage of .770.

Among the remainder of Sullivan's honors are such awards as being chosen to the Helm's Foundation Hall of Fame, and being picked as the Oklahoma Collegiate Conference Coach-of-the-Year three times. Also, Sullivan has won the conference championship more than any other coach, and his teams have appeared in the NAIA finals three times, trailing only Indiana State and Hamline University in total games played in the big tournament.

Before launching his fabulous career at Southeastern, Sullivan was an all-around athlete at Ardmore, Oklahoma, where he was named as halfback on the Tigers' Half-Century team. He attended SSC and Oklahoma A & M for his college degree and did some coaching at Stillwater with Hank Iba before returning to Durant.

A NEWSPAPERMAN AND AN ARTIST, who happen to be husband and wife and Southeastern alumni as well, were asked to pick the 1962 Savage Queen. Dick and Patricia Lawhorn, now of Houston, Texas, are fulfilling predictions of success which their Southeastern careers anticipated . . . Dick, once editor of The Southeastern, is now Night Editor of The Houston Chronicle. Pat, once an extremely talented Southeastern art student, is now a successful commercial artist. At present one highly specialized art assignment is that of Mapmaker Draftsman—which means she builds geological maps.

After looking at the pictures of the Ten Pretty Girls sent to her and Dick, Pat reports that their son, a junior in high school, is "ready to go to Southeastern."

RICHARD LAWHORN
Night News Editor

Architect Of Chronicle Blue Streak

The Chronicle's night news editor is Oklahoma-born Richard Leroy Lawhorn, age 34.

While the city sleeps, Lawhorn ramrods the night copy desk (10 p.m.-6 a.m.) that edits and lays out The Chronicle's Blue Streak edition.

Lawhorn, a graduate of Southeastern State College (Durant, Okla.), selects the so-called top stories for display on Page One.

He joined this paper in August, 1954, as a copy editor. He had been on the city desk of the Dallas Times Herald earlier.

Two years ago he was cited by the Associated Press for excellence in Page One make-up.

Lawhorn, his wife, Patricia, and their three children, live at 1113 Ave. M, South Houston.
