Bloomer Sullivan. The Man. The Coach. The Legend. Many a high school athlete grew up with the ideals set by "Coach".

Sullivan was the athletic director and basketball coach for 27 years at Southeastern. During his career, he had 13 Oklahoma Conference Championships, 1959 Hall of Fame honors, Oklahoma Coach of the Year twice, 1957 NAIA Coach of the Year and had teams in the NAIA Tournament finals in 1942, 1955, 1957 and 1962.

In 27 years, his teams won 650 games and lost 222. He trained two time Olympic coach Warren Womble, Olympic players Jerry Shipp and Kirby Minter, seven All Americans and 35 All Conference players.

But Sullivan was more than one of the winningest coaches — he was a teacher and he loved it. He not only trained fine athletes, but fine minds as well. He took students with little or no athletic ability and taught them to believe in themselves.

Although the familiar "Hey, Coach Sullivan" will be heard no more, memories of Bloomer Sullivan will live on in the hearts of his students and his athletes.

STUDENT LIFE

What is it like to be a part of Southeastern? It's getting involved as a student or teacher; it's classes where we begin to comprehend what the real world is like; it's wondering . . . "where do we go from here."

Checking the mail, getting news from home, and an attempt at balancing your checkbook is something enough to make the typical college student just a little bit homesick.

College begins to show us that not everyone is going to agree with our ideas, yet our own opinions begin to change as we grow a little wiser each day.

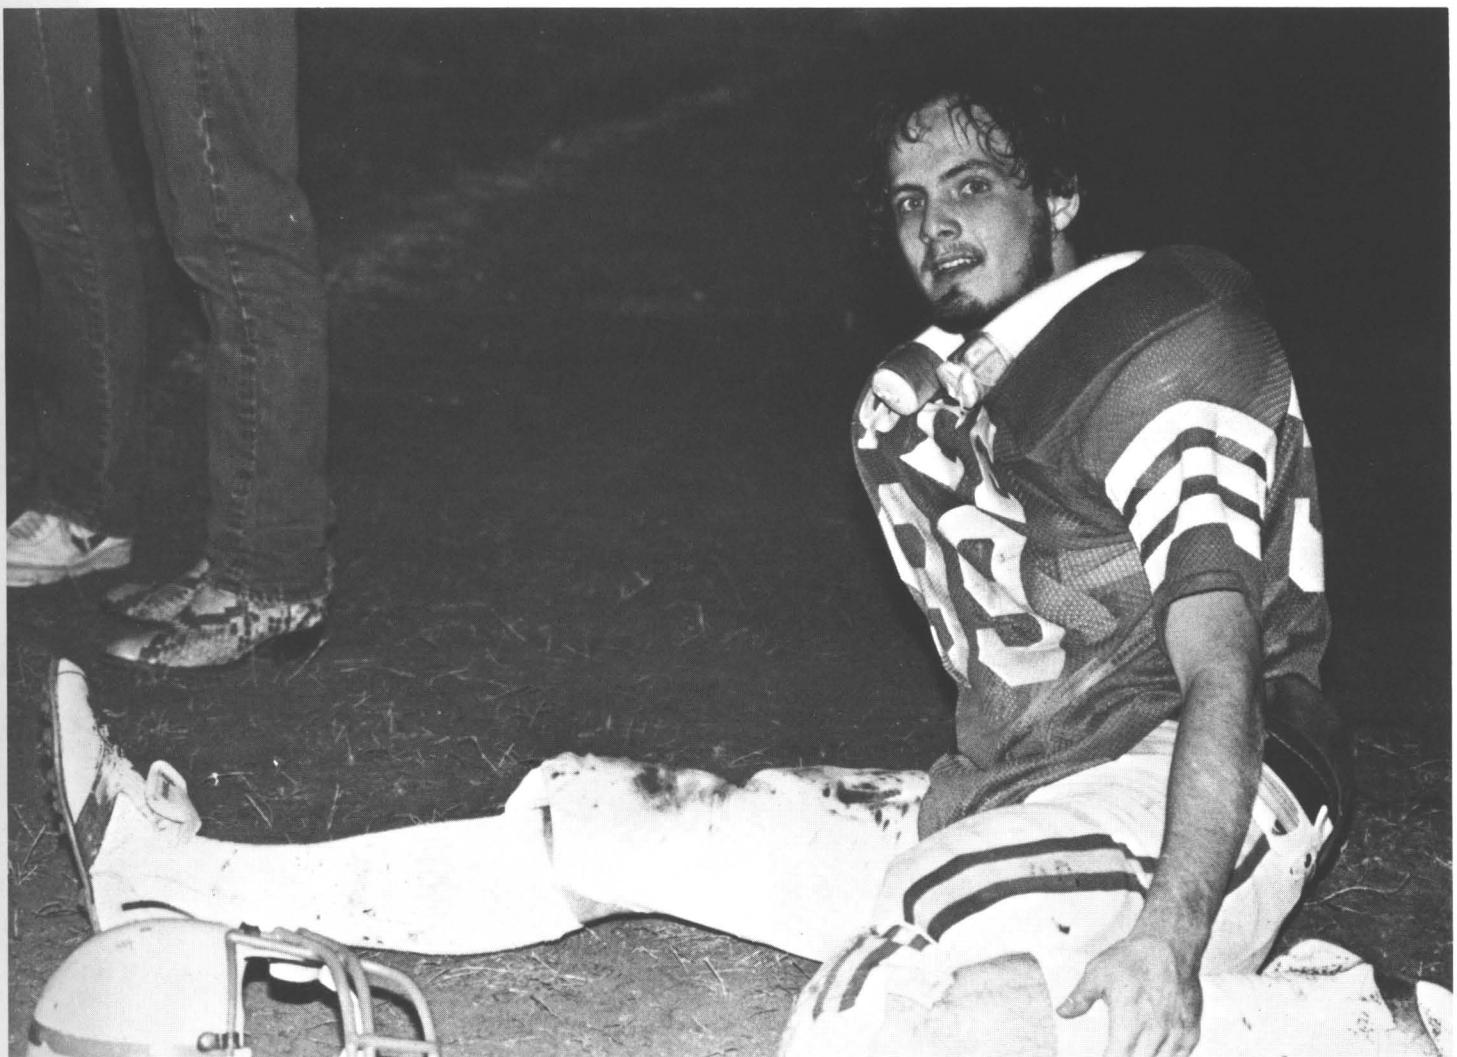

We begin developing our skills and getting involved in campus activities and jobs.

We play hard, we use our minds and our muscles. We're young and we're eager to learn.

Sometimes it's nice to get away from a noisy roommate or a too-small room and take advantage of a pretty day ... to study or just ponder about, life in general.

College becomes a place where new relationships begin and sometimes continue to grow for the rest of our lives.

We may not know where we're going and it may make us mad sometimes, but we're gonna get there . . . no matter what!

ADMINISTRATION

An Administrative Story Unfolds. . . .

Believe it or not, instructors at Southeastern are people too! They like to do everyday normal things (like eat, sleep, play and — yes — even act silly).

Sometimes students find it hard to realize that the reason these "people" are up here is for them — the student body. Often students think instructors are mean, tough and, at times, absolutely unfeeling and cold hearted. But they're only helping to prepare students for the cruel world outside of college.

These administrators are dedicated and strive to help mold and develop the eager minds of the future. These people are special people, and each and every one of them help to make Southeastern the one place that students will never forget.

Getting his hair fixed before pictures by Vicki Hudson (1) is Dan Lounsberry. Both teachers are coaches in the health, physical education and recreation department.

A popular watering hole (2) for instructors is the faculty lounge. At almost any time of the day, a few instructors can be found hoisting a mug of java.

Governor, Regents Head Faculty

Control of Southeastern Oklahoma State University and all universities and colleges in the state lies in the hands of two major parties — the people of Oklahoma, headed by Governor George Nigh, and the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education.

Nigh (1) was elected November 7, 1978, as the 22nd Governor of Oklahoma. He is the first lieutenant governor to be elected and the first person to serve three terms as Oklahoma's chief executive. Members of the board of regents included (2) Dr. John Bruce, (3) Ruth Holmes, (4) Wayne Salisbury, (5) John deSteiguer, (6) Bowie Ballard, (7) Jack Annis, (8) W.R. Bradford, (9) Edward Livermore, (10) Leslie Fisher and (11) G.K. Allen.

President Hibbs,

Our Man in Charge

Often the leader of a group is labelled the "man in charge." Our man in charge is a true leader. President Hibbs came in 1969 and since has maintained what he calls an open-door policy with students. For administrative policy-making, advice-ment or counseling, the door to his office or even his home is always open. It is good to know that he is concerned about each student as well as his many administrative duties.

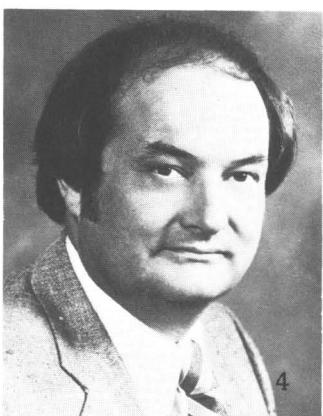

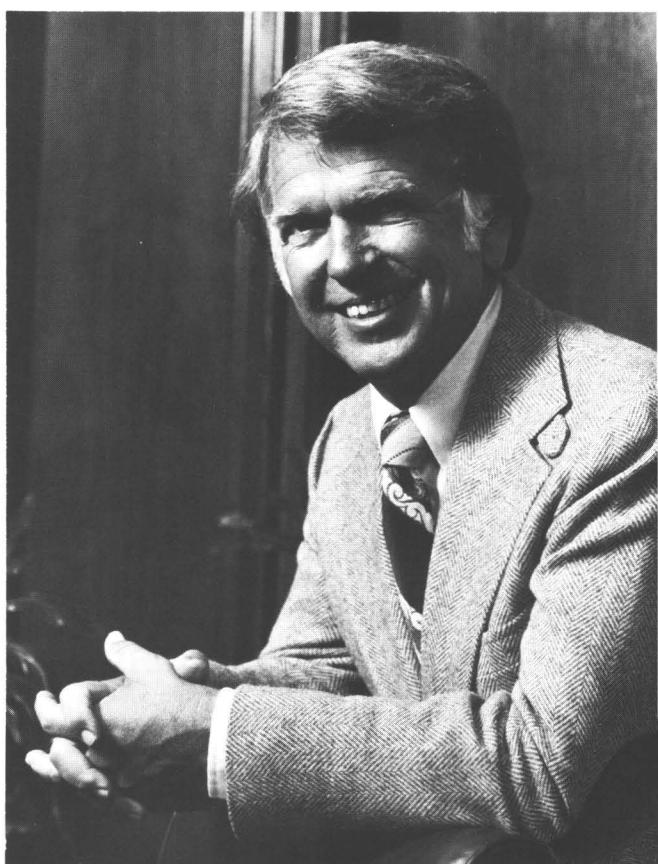

President of SSU is (1) Leon Hibbs. Hibbs (2) confers with Joe Gary of Sooner, Inc., (right) and Troyce McGovern, Durant's mayor. The Hibbs' family include (3) Dr. Hibbs, son Craig, Mrs. Hibbs and daughter Lee Ann. Pat Norris (4) is the president's secretary.

Vice Presidents And Deans Work To Help Students

The job of carrying out administrative policies, counseling students and overseeing various departments may sound like a big job. Well, it is, and this job belongs to the vice presidents and deans.

Most of the official work is carried out in the Administration Building (1). Vice presidents include the following: (2) M.G. Smith, university services; (3) John Krattiger, student services; (4) David Parker, business services; (5) Ernest Sturch, instruction and dean of liberal studies; (6) Mary Castleberry, records, registration and admissions.

Deans include the following: (7) Katie Frank Slack, women; (8) G. Pat Powers, education and psychology; (9) Colin Bowen, behavioral studies and graduates, (10) C. Henry Gold, business and industry, and Robert Thomas, men.

Office Staff Keeps Paper Flow Smooth

Keeping the paper work flowing smoothly are (1) Dorothy Laycock, student services; (2) Priscilla Gilbert, student aide; (3) Cindy Walker, student aide; (4) Nancy Martin, student aide; (5) Tonya Copeland, student aide; (6) Debra Hemphill, Sally Clark and Sue Dill, instruction; (7) clockwise — Melinda Armor, Cheryl Meddar, Charlie Cooper, student aides, and Gwen Tyus, secretary, dean of women; (8) Jeanine Harryman (left) and Beth Boynton, student aides, instruction.

English, Humanities And Languages Form New Department

Communications are the keys to success and what better way to communicate than to study languages. Correct use of words is important and the English, Humanities and Language Department is the place to learn these skills.

Members of the department include the following: (1) Joe Littlejohn, chairman, (2) Doris Andrews, (3) Lee Ball, (4) Claude Fouilade, (5) Robert Henderson, (6) Elbert Hill, (7) Dora Houston, (8) Blanche Jamison, (9) Billie Letts, (10) Dennis Letts, (11) Claude Adams, (12) Howard Starks.

Other members of the department include the following: (1) Lody Burt, (2) Joyce Coupey, (3) Sonny Davis, (4) Jan Eppler, (5) Linda Jones, (6) Anima Bhattacharya, (7) Lena Faulks, (8) Koula Hazell, (9) Jo Anne Jackson, (10) Debra Sikes, (11) Roberta Krock, (12) Hiahwahnah Work, secretary, (13) Maria Morales, secretary, and (14) Nora Quesada.

Delving into the reason behind behavior is the main theme for the courses in Education and Psychology Department. Not just for teaching majors, many students work toward degrees in counseling and other related fields.

Education and Psychology

Teach Behavior Studies

Staff and faculty members of Education and Psychology include Collin Bowen, dean (1); (2) John Gecks, chairman; (3) J.B. Fox; (4) Jack Cazzelle; (5) Rock Ashcraft; (6) Charles Andrews; (7) James Mitchell; (8) Phil Dunham; (9) Dovie Walker; (10) Jeanette Engles; student aides (11) Jeannie White and Diane Armes, (12) Linda Duncan; (13) Cheryl Jackson, secretary, and (14) Melinda Hodge, student aide.

Elementary education includes (1) Edwardine McCoy, chairman; (2) Elizabeth Walter, (3) Betty McGovern, (4) Merle McElroy-Ashcraft, (5) Dorothy Silver, (6) Gayle Castle, (8) Sid Womack, (9) Lewis Barker, (10) Paula Platter, (11) Joy Cornelison, secretary, student aides (12) Karen Sexton, (13) Peggy Heath, and (14) Jeanie Kay Hodge.

Journalism, Speech And Theatre Form Dept.

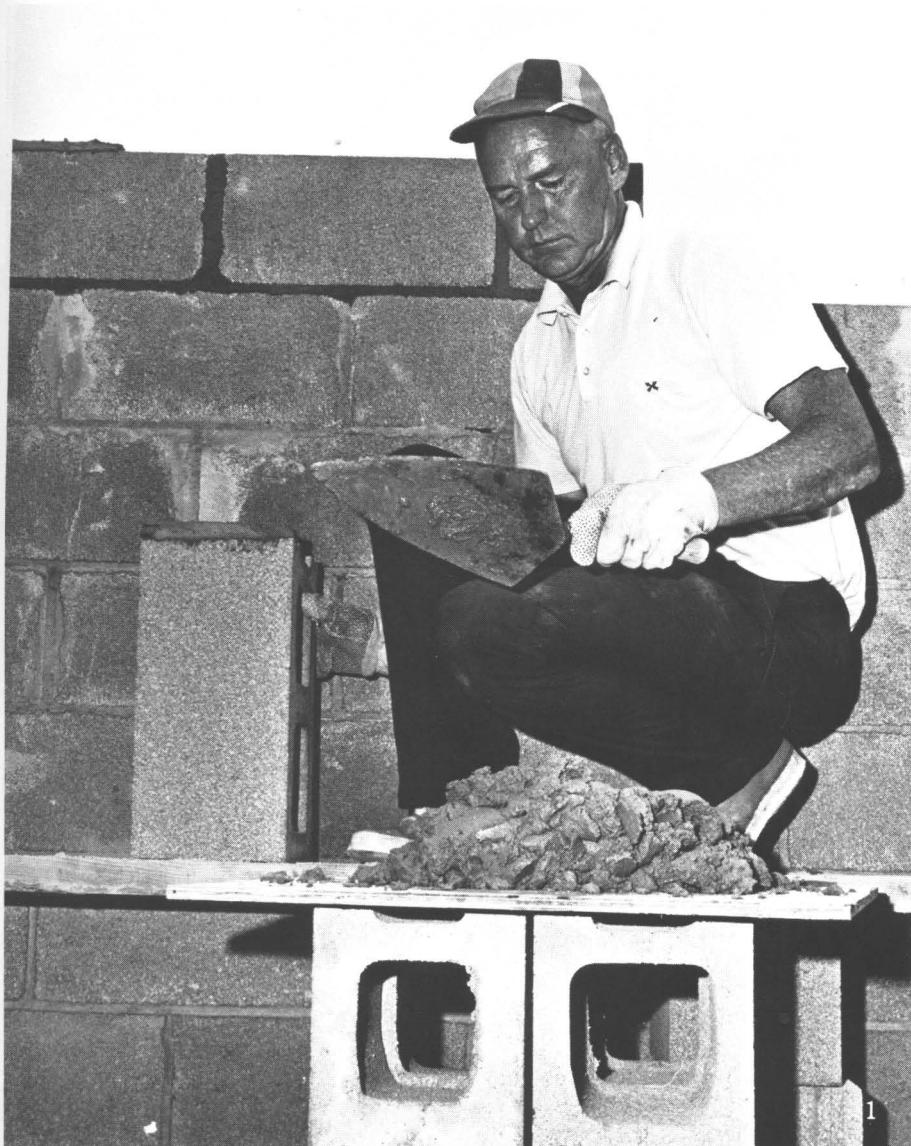

Journalism, speech and theatre combined to form the Mass Communications Department this past spring.

The department combines creative artistry with practical application to give majors a diversified background in several areas. Incorporated into the program are the Southeastern newspaper, the Savage yearbook, forensics, radio television and theatre.

Members of the mass communications department include the following: (1) C.W. Mangrum, chairman; (2) Ben Chappell; (3) Kirk Ashton; (4) Kathy Kahrs; (5) Sherri Reneau, secretary, and Kelly Thomas Ridling, aide; (6) Molly Risso; (7) Jon Talton; (8) Ken Nichols; (9) Rudy Manley; (10) Julia Daphne Davis; and (11) Patricia Taylor, aide.

Art Department Changes Location

Art is challenging and yet fun, but most of all it is very rewarding. Art gives all a chance to discover a little hidden talent.

This past summer, the art department completed their move to the old industrial arts building.

Allen Platter (1) builds a wall in preparation for the move to the new building. Members of the art faculty include the following: (2) Allen Platter, chairman; (3) James Barnett; (4) Marian O'Daniel; and (5) Max McClendon.

Biological And Physical Sciences Closely Related

Life — What makes us "tick"? Why do we, as organic, carbon-based creatures, possess this precious, mysterious gift of life: That's what biological science is — not only what we are, but why we are, how we adapt, how we live and interact with each other and the environment.

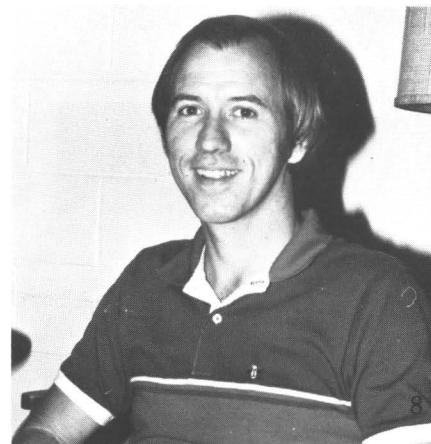

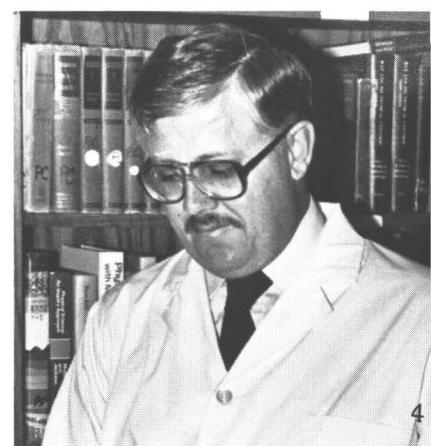

The Biological and Physical Sciences Departments are based on this study of life. The department offers a large variety of courses toward a degree in geology, science education with emphasis on biology and wildlife conservation.

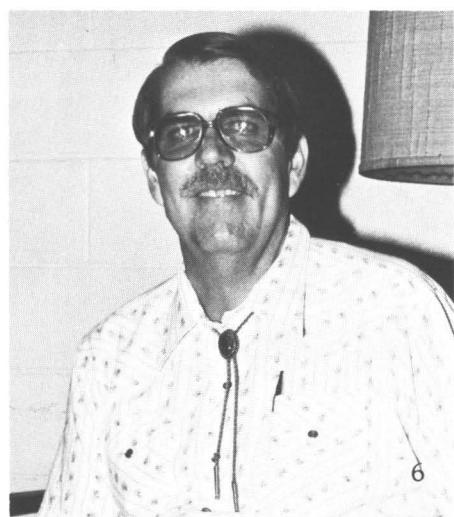

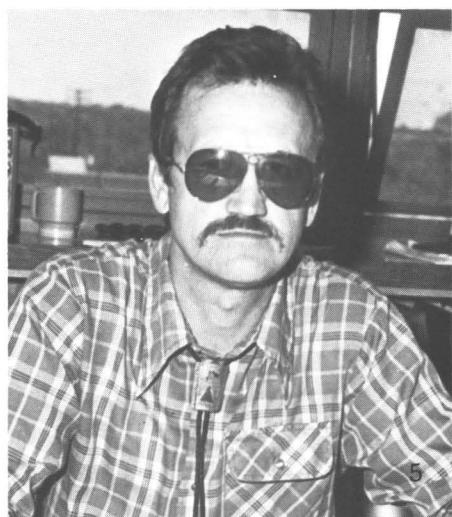

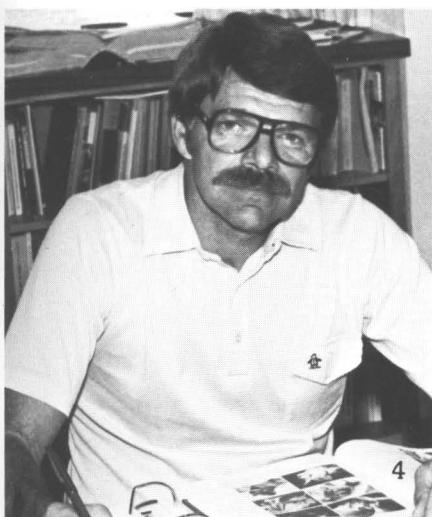

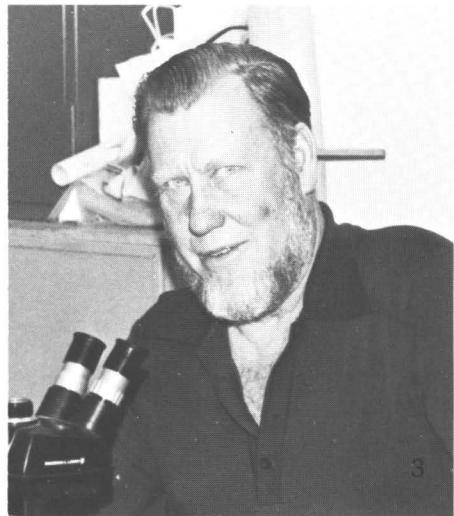

There is graduate work along with a masters in education.

Degrees here may lead to jobs in the Oklahoma Wildlife Department, Corps of Engineers, and other opportunities. Curriculum is also designed for preparation of students for more advanced health-related studies.

Members of the Physical Science Department staff are (1) Arnold Walker chairman; (2) Lewis Barker, (3) Gordon Eggleton, (4) John R. Wright, (5) Jack Robinson, (6) Don Collier, (7) Jerry Polson, and (8) Mrs. Wright, secretary.

Members of the Biological Sciences Department include (1) Earl Kilpatrick, chairman; (2) Connie Taylor, (3) John Taylor, (4) Sam Bigham, (5) James Lester, (6) Don Hazell, student aides (7) Diana Duncan, (8) Lisa Davis, Donna Benton, Debbi West, Derek Citty, Angie Bivings, and (9) Angela Mohair.

Mathematic Basic Skills Taught to Students

Basic skills in manipulating numbers are important to nearly everyone. Advancing these skills is the focus of the Math Department.

Dr. Bill Grimes (1) is chairman of the mathematics department. Members of the faculty include (2) Doyle Bostic, (3) Paula Platter, (4) Fred Stroup, Jr., and (5) Fred Collins. Student aide workers (6) include Kiem Do, Roger Richmond and Tran Thu.

Computer Sciences Offer Variety in Coursework

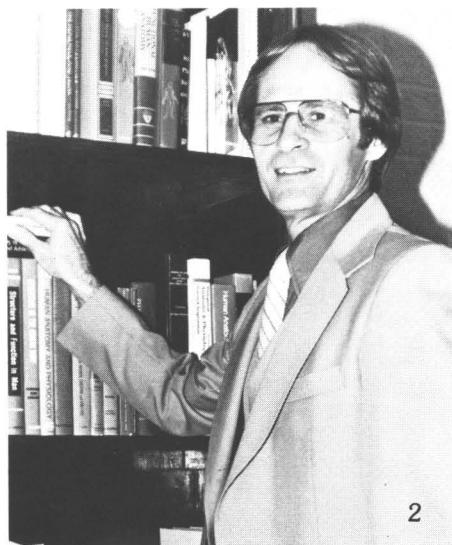

The new age of computers has taken over almost everywhere and to compete in this new age, some study in computer sciences has become essential for nearly all students.

Members of the computer science department are (1) Debra Hedrick, (2) Johnny Carroll, Joe Wiley (3) is chairman of the department. Jim O'Steen (4) is also a faculty member of the department. (5) Student aides include (from right) Jeff Joiner, Karen Hailey, Lorraine Norris, (rear) Jean Fields, John Moore, Ray Richmond and Charla Noak. (6) Mike Ellis is an assistant in computer science.

Savage Sports: On The Way Up

The United States, a health-conscious society, correlates health with physical education.

Head of the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department is (1) Don Parham. Members of his staff include (2) Don Ferguson, (3) Marsha Gathron and Mike Metheny. Other coaches (4) included Chuck Minkley, Val Reneau, Richard Rutherford, Dan Lounsbury, Dennis May, and Mik-Bundy.

Opposite Page: the entire department paused a few moments (1) for a photo. Other instructors include (2) Jack Hedden, Lon Reisman and Nick Keith, (3) Vicki Hudson and Roberta Wescott, (4) Dennis May, Red Rutherford, Dan Lounsbury and Val Reneau.

Aerospace Teaches More Than Flying

Modern transportation and technology have taken to the air and so has Southeastern with a top-flight aerospace program, emphasizing the aviation aspect.

Bill Edwards (1) is chairman of the department. Members include (2) Bill Dodd, (3) John Rutherford, (4) Doug Gandy, (5) Ed Hunnicutt.

On the opposite page: Other members are (4) Arthur Slowey, (5) Tim Page, (6) Bob Georges and (7) Scott Merchant.

Safety Pays

Considering the fact that so many deaths today occur on the highways, the study of safety and driver's education is a very important part of any school's curriculum.

Members of the safety department include (1) Jim Cunningham and (2) James Bowers. Chairman of the department is (3) Troy Webb.

ORGANIZATIONS

Sometimes, just going to college is not enough for some people. They seem to have an insatiable thirst for getting involved to make things happen. Belonging to an organization helps to work with other people in striving toward common goals and by providing valuable experiences in preparation for the real world.

GREEKS

Going Greek

Pledging. The beginning of going Greek. Only a pledge can know what it's like to be caught without their book or board, or being given a demerit for "not speaking". Hell weekend, sneaks, retreats, hayrides, dances, balls, Greek Bowl, visiting old folk's homes, IFC wrestling . . . name it by going Greek and be involved in doing it. So, being a Greek is more than just Izod's, Polo's, and Toga parties, it's . . . togetherness.

Jane Davis receives (1) a stout surprise as she sips her "kool-aid" during a TKE Toga party! Although "tough-looking," the Sig Tau's (2) take a beating during "Greek Bowl", the traditional charity fund raiser. The Phi Sigma Epsilon's smear the Sigma Tau Gammas 36-6, but not without some injuries, such as Stacy Bradford's, (3) as he is helped off the field by concerned teammates.

Top — Greek life gives students an opportunity to get to know one another better. Side — TKE's ring their bell for the Savage football team.

SPORTS

A Sports Story. . . .

Sports. To some people it's everything. It's living to sweat, to feel muscles scream in pain, to desire to compete, to want to win! Running, jumping, tackling, anything physical falls into the category of sports whether it's collegiate, intramurals, or just plain having fun, it's sports. Everyone enjoys sports whether it's actually physically involved or as a fan emotionally involved because it's action!

TEAM — 1981

Savages and Savagettes In Action

Marla Smith and Cherry Kemp (1) scramble to keep the basketball from the Lady Bisons during the fall basketball season. Debra Thomas (2) makes an attempt to keep the ball to herself and away from the opponents. Two against one (3) doesn't bother Debra Thomas as she scores on a jump shot.

Opposite page: Anthony Bell (1) lays into two despite an attempt to block the jump shot. Curtis Callaway and Harry Spivey provided coverage. Curtis Callaway (2) gets assistance from Spive for a lay-up shot. Bruce Bell (3) comes in for a basket.

Savage Basketball Men Start Season with Outstanding Action

Roar of the crowds, sound of Dr. Byrd's voice over the PA system and Randy Hughes' imitation of the San Diego Chicken brings on thoughts of the Southeastern basketball season.

Jump shots, skilled dribbling, rebounding and slam dunks are all part of the Savage line-up.

Savage Basketball Women Ho

Scoring By Opponents

Filling the roster for the Savagettes are the following: (kneeling, from left) Cherry Kemp, Lee Brown, Dee Parker, Jana Weir, Penny Pollard, Kay Fuller, Debra McCauley, (standing, from left) Assistant Coach Kathy Cotton, Marla Smith, Debra Thomas, Rita Brock, Kim Maxwell, Pat White, Anita Walker, Shirlene Lilley and Coach Nick Keith.

Coach Nick Keith, in his first year as basketball coach at Southeastern, said his charges are "still a pretty good team that's trying to find a way to win . . . playing everyone close, but (still) not quite good enough."

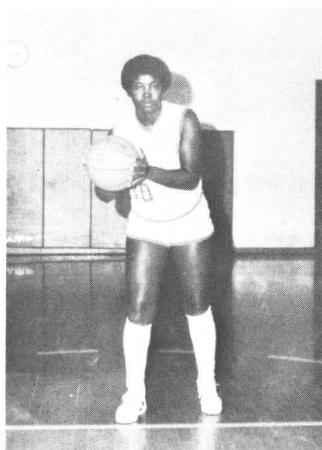

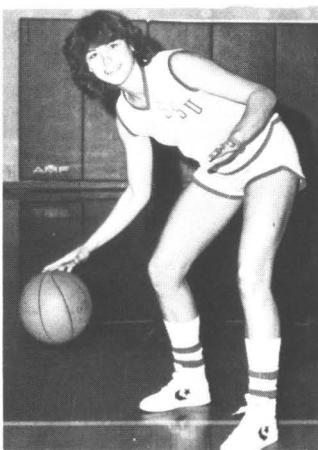

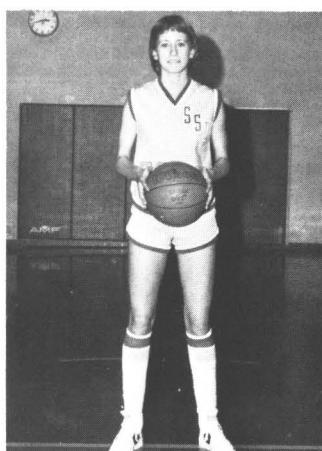

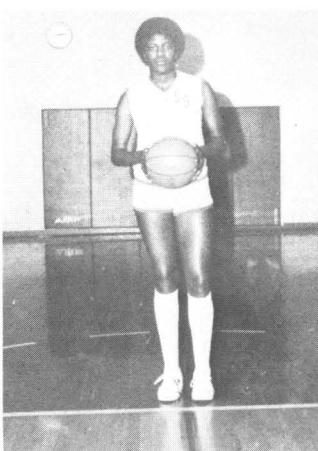

Rita Brock, freshman, forward
Lee Brown, senior, guard
Kay Fuller, senior, forward

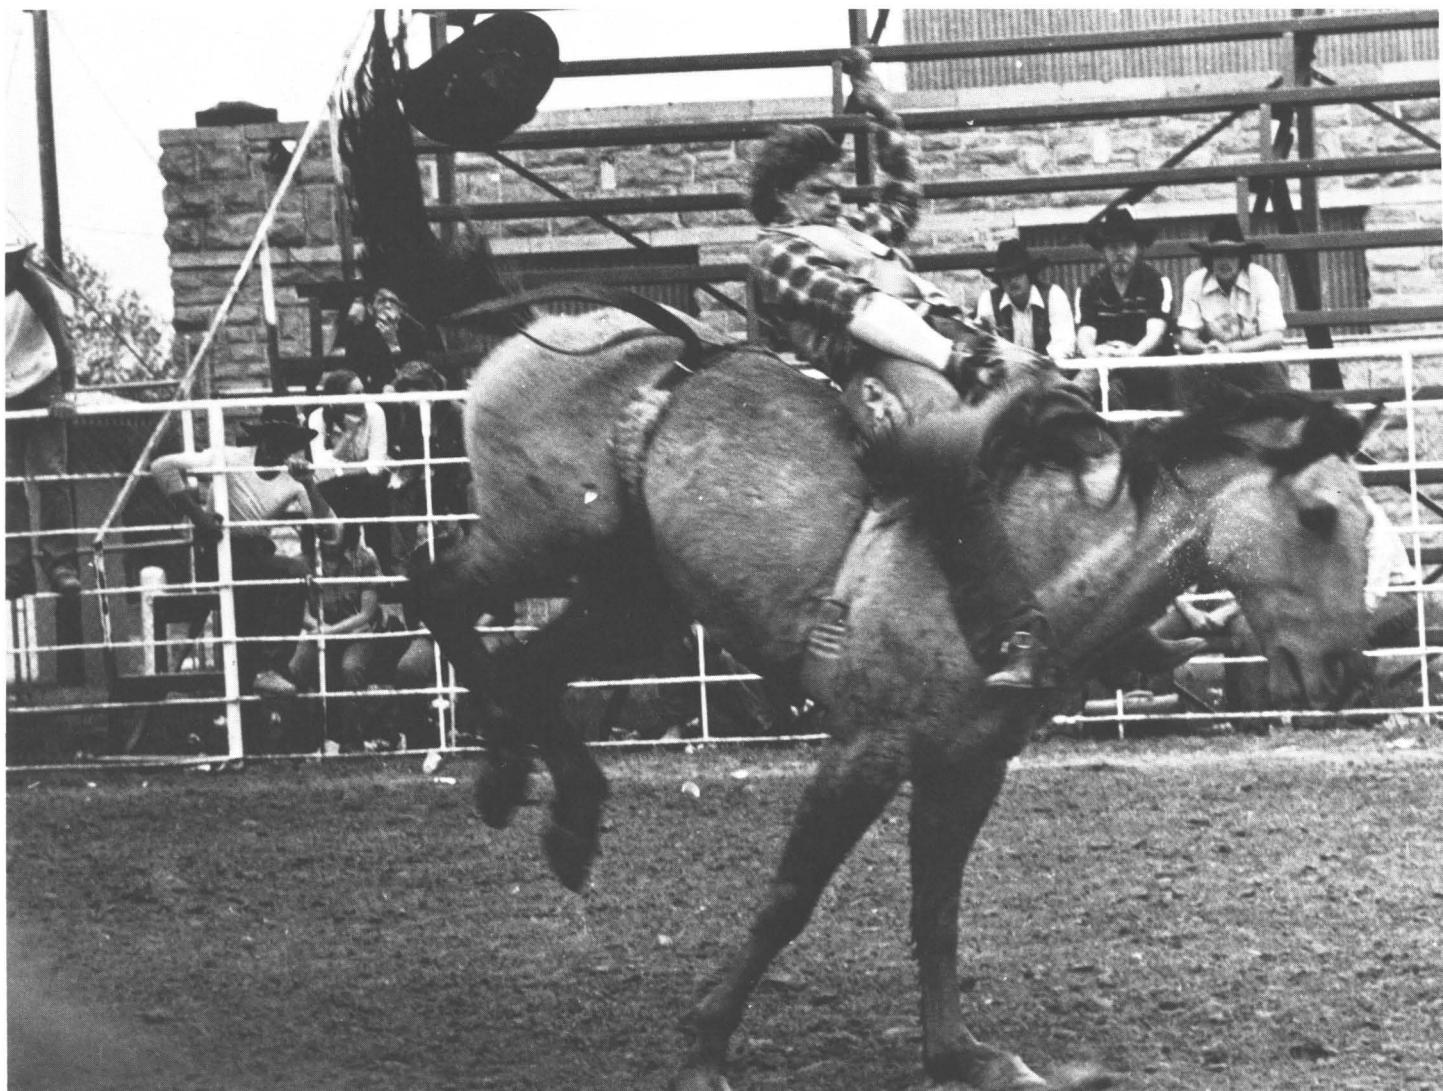

Cherry Kemp, senior, forward
Shirlene Lilley, Junior
Kim Maxwell, senior

Debra McCauley, sophomore
Darlenen Parker, senior
Penny Pollard, freshman

Anita Walker, freshman
Jana Weir, freshman
Jennifer McRorey, assistant trainer

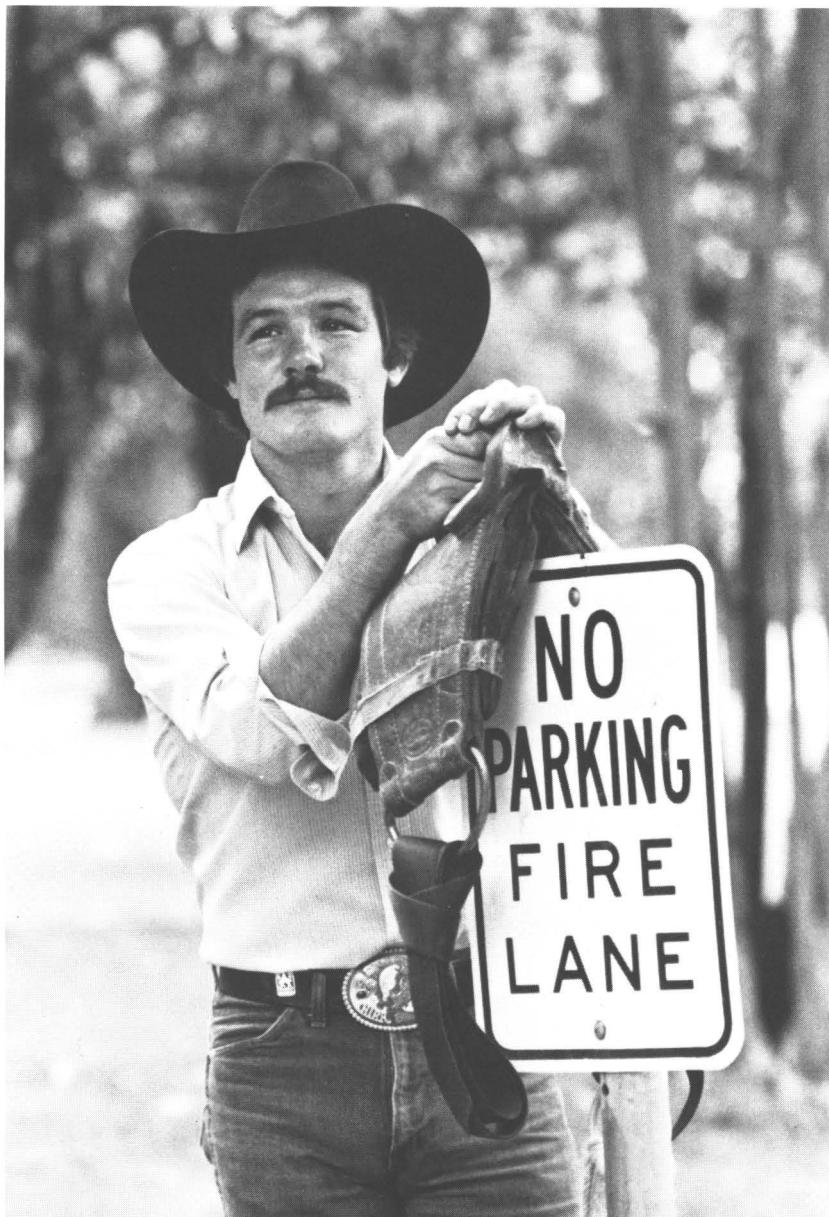

Rodeo means action and Southeastern's teams are among the best in the nation.

At the national finals for collegiate rodeos, both the men's and women's teams placed near the top of the heap.

Scott Fletcher (1) shows his prize-winning style in bronc busting. Edie Cowart (2) rushes to beat the clock in goat tying.

Rodeo Means Hard Work And Practice

Rodeo — a throwback to the days of the Old West — means more than just riding a pony for an hour or two along a gentle trail. Rodeo means hours of intense practice, often doing the same thing over and over until that moment when everything falls into place. Then practicing until that skill becomes the best it can become. At that moment, a champion is made and Southeastern has two teams of champions.

Edee Cowart (above) shows her championship form in wrestling her goat to the ground in a goat roping event.

Men's Track

Track coach Dennis May (1) thinks about his teams' strategies as he walks across the track field during spring practice. Danny Phipps (2), a graduate runner, specializes in distance running for the Savages. He took top honors at several meets. Alan Fitzgerald (3) concentrates his running in the 880. He also does some distance running. Kent Davis (4) pushes hard to break the tape during the annual spring track meet. Discus is the sport of Curtis Callaway (5), who is also a starter on the men's basketball team.

Women's Track

Tennis

In the middle of a serve (2), an unidentified tennis player has an evidently invisible opponent.

The men's tennis team picture was not available.

Intramurals

The Southeastern intramural sports program offers a variety of activities for students. You can become involved in flag football, softball, volleyball, basketball, tennis, raquetball, soccer, pool-snooker and even table tennis.

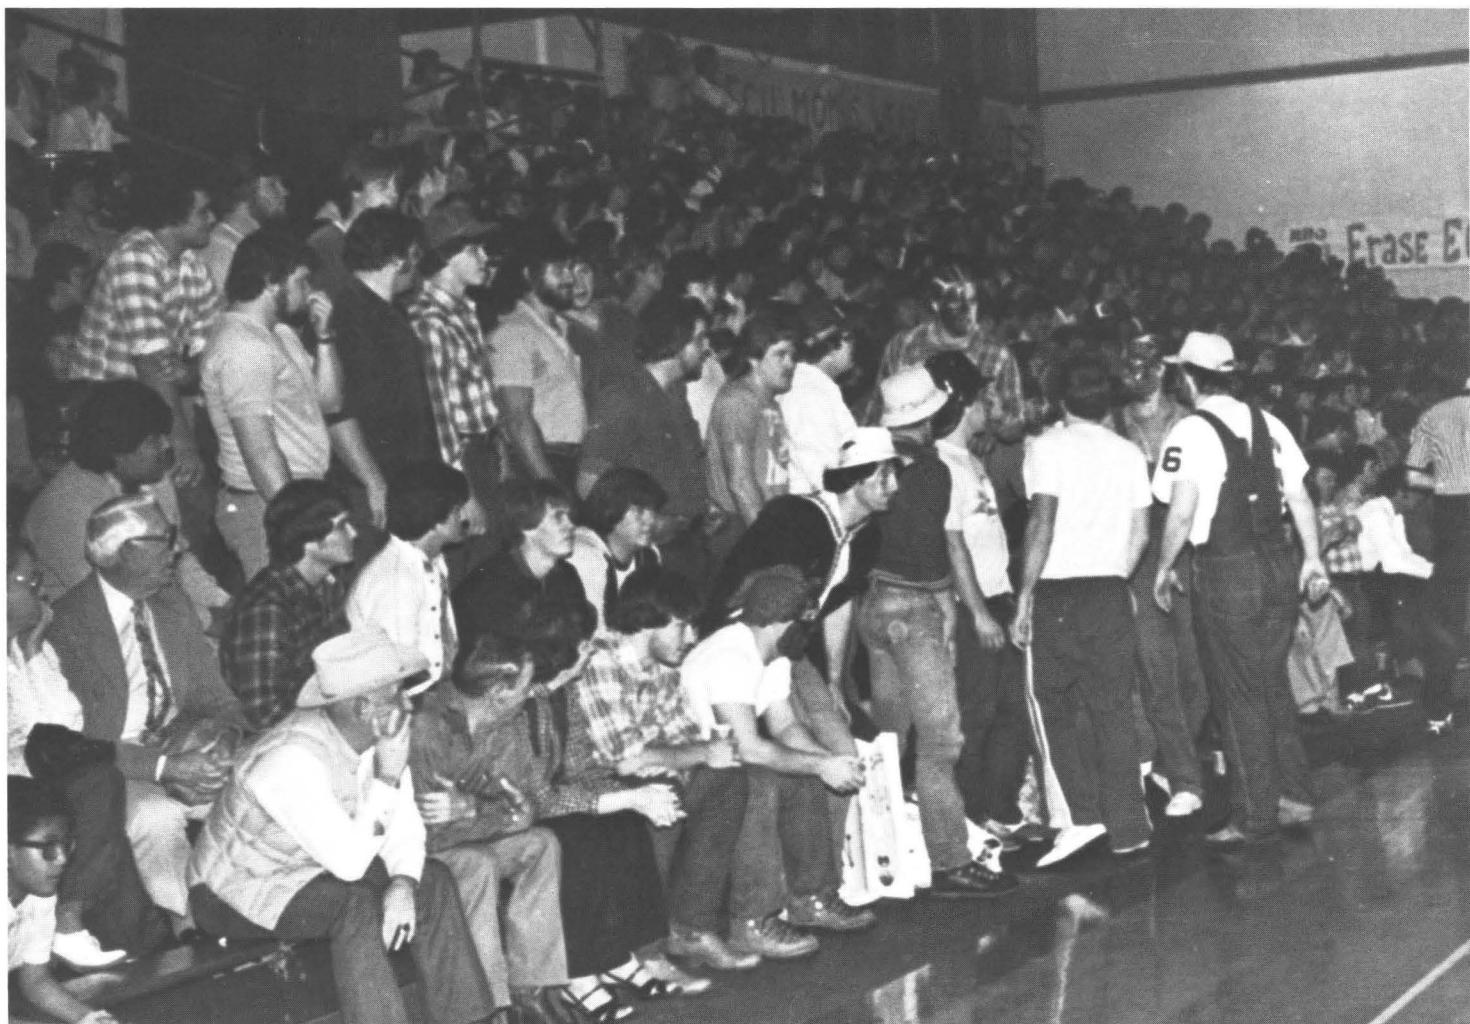

Intramurals provide students with a much-needed method for releasing all the pent-up energies after a tough day of classes. Intramurals can become a serious sport or just something to do on a slow evening. Either way, intramurals are for everyone, an exhilarating way to have fun!

On The Sidelines And In The Bleachers. . . . .

The Fans. The spirit of the team. Fighting just as much when we lose or exploding with pride when we win. We're right in there with ya team, 'cuz we luv ya!

CLASSES

A Classes Story....

People — that's what it takes to make up a class. People who take notes, get confused, ask questions and study. Without people, there would be no need for college, no need to learn and probably no need for life, because living is learning and that is what college is for — people willing to become what life has intended for them to become.

CLOSING

Whoever said, “This Is the Best Time of Your Life!”
Wasn’t Kidding
Or Were They?

Oh Dear . . .

... I knew there was something Mama forgot to tell me about men . . .
How To Handle 'Em!

I Wonder,
Will We Ever
Forget All These Moments We Measured
At And Around
Dear Old SOSU

I must admit, this has been one of the toughest yearbooks I have ever put together. I realize there are a lot of mistakes, but I promise that none were intentional. I do hope you enjoy your yearbook and that years from now you'll be able to look back and remember some of your moments at good ol' Southeastern!

*Phyllis McCullough,
Editor*
