Men's Tennis

Southeastern men's tennis grabbed honors in 2009. Travis Truax was named LSC Sportsmanship Player of the Year. Oriol Vidal Cortes was named Co-Freshman of the Year. Alejandro Argunedo was tabbed Co-Newcomer of the year. Nikita Ryashchenko was named all-conference in singles and doubles competition.

Rodeo Team

Volleyball

Southeastern volleyball had a successful season, racking up a 20-13 record. The Storm scored victories in clusters, winning four in a row to start the season. At mid-year they won six straight, and late in the year collected three in a row. Among the team's big wins was a 3-0 victory over ECU and a 3-0 win over A&M-Commerce.

Softball Team

Softball

Southeastern is always among the Lone Star Conference leaders in softball. Spring 2009 was no exception, as SE cruised to a 50-11 record, and a national ranking. The Storm took on Angelo State in the conference semifinals, and battled down to the last out before losing 4-3. Pitchers Marjorie Johnson and Jami McAdoo gave SE a strong one-two combination.

Baseball

SAVAGE STORM

Baseball

The Savage Storm baseball team finished the season with a winning record, at 27-26. The Storm fared better in the LSC, posting a 23-19 conference mark. The Storm finished the regular season with eight wins in its last 10 games, including a four-game sweep of A&M-Kingsville and 3-of-4 vs. ECU.

Golf

Southeastern men's golf competed in a full schedule of events in 2008-09. SE's Jordan Sullivan was picked LSC All-Conference Honorable Mention. Weslee Vance was named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll. At the conference tournament in Thackerville, Boston Brittain shot a low round of 67 and tied for 14th to lead the Savage Storm.
