The Henry G. Bennett Memorial Library has been updating their facilities since the summer of 2012. Picured here is the Brigance area which houses juvenile and education books.

The loop has undergone renevations to add a bus lane and handicap parking spots to make the campus more ADA complient. Sidewalks and stairs were added in this endeavor.

The Center for Student Success was recently completed. What was once the old bookstore has now found a new purpose as a center directed towards prmoting education.
